The Diamond Underworld:

The Diamond Underworld Fred Kamil, 1979 Flight of the Diamond Smugglers: A Tale of Pigeons, Obsession, and Greed Along Coastal South Africa Matthew Gavin Frank, 2021-02-23 Unforgettable An outstanding adventure in its lyrical utterly compelling and heartbreaking investigations of the world of diamond smuggling Aimee Nezhukumatathil For nearly eighty years a huge portion of coastal South Africa was closed off to the public With many of its pits now deemed overmined and abandoned American journalist Matthew Gavin Frank sets out across the infamous Diamond Coast to investigate an illicit trade that supplies a global market Immediately he became intrigued by the ingenious methods used in facilitating smuggling particularly the illegal act of sneaking carrier pigeons onto mine property affixing diamonds to their feet and sending them into the air Entering Die Sperrgebiet The Forbidden Zone is like entering an eerie ghost town but Frank is surprised by the number of people willing even eager to talk with him Soon he meets Msizi a young diamond digger and his pigeon Bartholomew who helps him steal diamonds It s a deadly game pigeons are shot on sight by mine security and Msizi knows of smugglers who have disappeared because of their crimes For this Msizi blames Mr Lester an evil tall tale figure of mythic proportions From the mining towns of Alexander Bay and Port Nolloth through the halfway desert to Kleinsee s shores littered with shipwrecks Frank investigates a long overlooked story Weaving interviews with local diamond miners who raise pigeons in secret with harrowing anecdotes from former heads of security environmental managers and vigilante pigeon hunters Frank reveals how these feathered bandits became outlaws in every mining town Interwoven throughout this obsessive quest are epic legends in which pigeons and diamonds intersect such as that of Krishna s famed diamond Koh i Noor the Mountain of Light and that of the Cherokee serpent Uktena In these strange connections where truth forever tangles with the lore of centuries past Frank is able to contextualize the personal grief that sent him with his wife Louisa in the passenger seat on this enlightening journey across parched lands Blending elements of reportage memoir and incantation Flight of the Diamond Smugglers is a rare and remarkable portrait of exploitation and greed in one of the most dangerous areas of coastal South Africa With his sovereign prose and insatiable curiosity Matthew Gavin Frank reminds us that the world is a place of wonder if only we look Toby Muse West African Diamonds, 1919-1983 P. A. L. Greenhalgh, 1985 Study of the history of the diamond mining industry and trade in West Africa reviews the world diamond industry examines the role of European foreign enterprise incl Land concessions labour supply wages labour relations profitability and productivity comments on African indigenization of digging concessions and operations growth of the African diamond industry and the production factors discusses the impact of government policies taxation public ownership and diamond marketing in Western Europe and within the region Bibliography graph maps statistical tables Fragments from the History of Loss Louise Green, 2020-04-02 The Anthropocene s urgent message about imminent disaster invites us to forget about history and to focus on the present as it careens into an unthinkable future To counter this Louise Green engages with the theoretical framing of nature in concepts such as the Anthropocene the great acceleration and rewilding in order to explore what the philosophy of nature in the era of climate change might look like from postcolonial Africa Utilizing a practice of reading developed in the Frankfurt school Green rearranges narrative fragments from the global nature industry which subjugates all aspects of nature to the logic of capitalist production in order to disrupt preconceived notions and habitual ways of thinking about how we inhabit the Anthropocene Examining climate change through the details of everyday life particularly the history of conspicuous consumption and the exploitation of Africa she surfaces the myths and fantasies that have brought the world to its current ecological crisis and that continue to shape the narratives through which it is understood Beginning with African rainforest exhibits in New York and Cornwall Green discusses how these representations of the climate catastrophe fail to acknowledge the unequal pace at which humans consume and continue to replicate imperial narratives about Africa Examining this history and climate change through the lens of South Africa's entry into capitalist modernity Green argues that the Anthropocene redirects attention away from the real problem which is not human's relation with nature but people's relations with each other A sophisticated carefully argued call to rethink how we approach relationships between and among humans and the world in which we live

Fragments from the History of Loss is a challenge to both the current era and the scholarly conversation about the Anthropocene

Diamond Warriors in Colonial Namibia Job Shipululo Amupanda, 2022-07-06 Diamond Warriors in Colonial Namibia enters into uncharted scholarly territory of illegal diamond smuggling at the largest diamond mining company in colonial Namibia De Beers Consolidated Diamond Mines of South West Africa CDM It details the underground activities of the natives migrant workers employed by the CDM and how these illicit activities accounted for rapid development in Owamboland Beyond this account the book takes on the deterministic natural resource curse theory that equates natural resource endowments to a curse resulting in underdevelopment and sometimes conflict It is argued and proven herein from a decolonial standpoint that such an approach is an oversimplification of the political economy of natural resources in Africa in general and Namibia in particular The text also provides a contextual account of the contract labour system and details the symbiotic relationship between CDM and the colonial state before highlighting the remaining unanswered questions and areas of further research
