The History of Religions E. Washburn Hopkins, 2015-06-16 Excerpt from The History of Religions In the language of one of the save races mentioned in this volume the word religion means the sacred tree Although innocent of allegory yet as in many other regards in this definition the savage has suggested a profound truth For religion is as it were a tree Its roots lie deep in the darkness of primeval earth its growth must precede its sheltering foliage and its unripened fruits are not pleasant Yet watered by a living spring it has risen out of a soil black and even gruesome since blood too has fertilized it but risen nevertheless it has slowly exalting itself heavenward and under it sits nearly all mankind In the course of this volume we shall study the roots and the higher growth of this tree which through its age long development as any tree changes its earth drawn sustenance into something more ethereal has transmuted terror into reverent awe hunger into hope lust into love We shall trace the slow progress of such roots of religion as bear today the names taboo fetishism totemism see how taboo invested with spiritual power the moral command insured the home and made for civilization how fetishism confirmed the thought that man depends on a I spiritual something gave faith in a power that helped and I made that power the judge of right and wrong how I totemism linked man in communion with the divine and I in conjunction with seasonal nature worship founded ritual I in the recurrent form necessary to religious stability We I shall see in short that the higher not only is above the i lower but that it has ascended out of the lower Savagery did not give place to civilization but developed into it was i already civilization in the germ About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work

Menzies,1901 Introduction to the History of Religions Crawford Howell Toy,1913 Discovering God Rodney Stark,2007-10-02 Discovering God is a monumental history of the origins of the great religions from the Stone Age to the Modern Age Sociologist Rodney Stark surveys the birth and growth of religions around the world from the prehistoric era of primal beliefs the history of the pyramids found in Iraq Egypt Mexico and Cambodia and the great Axial Age of Plato Zoroaster Confucius and the Buddha to the modern Christian missions and the global spread of Islam He argues for a free market theory of religion and for the controversial thesis that under the best unimpeded conditions the true most authentic religions will survive and thrive Among his many conclusions Despite decades of faulty reports that early religions were crude muddles of superstition it turns out that primitive humans had surprisingly sophisticated notions about God and Creation The idea of sin appeared suddenly in the sixth century BCE and quickly reshaped religious ideas from Europe to China Some major world religions seem to lack any plausible traces of divine inspiration Ironically some famous figures who attempted to found Godless religions ended up being worshiped as Gods Most people believe in the existence of God or Gods and this has apparently been so throughout human history Many modern biologists and psychologists reject these spiritual ideas especially those about the existence of God as delusional They claim that religion is a primitive survival mechanism that should have been discarded as humans evolved beyond the stage where belief in God served any useful purpose that in modern societies faith is a misleading crutch and an impediment to reason In Discovering God award winning sociologist Rodney Stark responds to this position arguing that it is our capacity to understand God that has evolved that humans now know much more about God than they did in ancient times The History of Religions (Classic Reprint) E. Washburn Hopkins,2017-09-08 Excerpt from The History of Religions In the course of this volume we shall study the roots and the higher growth of this tree which through its age long development as any tree changes its earth drawn sustenance into something more ethereal has transmuted terror into reverent awe hunger into hope lust into love We shall trace the slow progress of such roots of religion as bear today the names taboo fetishism totemism see how taboo invested with spiritual power the moral command insured the home and made for civilization how fetishism confirmed the thought that man depends on a spiritual something gave faith in a power that helped and made that power the judge of right and wrong how totemism linked man in communion with the divine and in conjunction with seasonal nature worship founded ritual in the recurrent form necessary to religious stability We shall see in short that the higher not only is above the lower but that it has ascended out of the lower Savagery did not give place to civilization but developed into it was already civilization in the germ
