From Notes of the Official Stenographers. Published by the Attorney-general, 1901 Homeless Lives in American Cities P. Webb, 2014-08-07 Homeless Lives in American Cities explores how the American discourse on homelessness arose from Victorian social and political anxieties about the impacts of immigration and urbanization on the middle class family It demonstrates how contemporary social work and policy emerge from Victorian cultural attitudes The Ways of the Hobo A-No. 1, 1915 Comprehensive Developmental Neuroscience: Cellular Migration and Formation of Neuronal Connections C.S. Lu, D. Van Vactor, 2013-05-06 Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story Jeff Birkenstein, Robert C. Hauhart, 2021-03-10 In Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story editors Robert C Hauhart and Jeff Birkenstein have assembled a collection of eighteen original essays written by literary critics from around the globe Collectively these critics argue that the reciprocal influence between Russian and American writers is integral to the development of the short story in each country as well as vital to the global status the contemporary short story has attained This collection provides original analyses of both well known Russian and American stories as well as some that might be more unfamiliar Each essay is purposely crafted to display an appreciation of the techniques subject matter

themes and approaches that both Russian and American short story writers explored across borders and time Stories by Gogol Dostoevsky Turgenev Chekhov and Krzhizhanovsky as well as short stories by Washington Irving Faulkner Langston Hughes Richard Wright Ursula Le Guin Raymond Carver and Joyce Carol Oates populate this essential multivalent collection Perhaps more important now than at any time since the end of the Cold War these essays will remind readers how much Russian and American culture share as well as the extent to which their respective literatures are deeply intertwined

Connections ,1987 Pacific Connections Kornel Chang,2012-06-12 Pacific Connections is a shrewd fascinating and cogent examination of a Pacific Northwest borderland often taken for granted as a peaceful but inconsequential meeting point between two friendly nations Chang shows instead how it has been a violent point of contention shaped by empire and Anglo American aspirations to hegemony migration and ubiquitous racism the creation of boundaries through state formation and the transgression of those boundaries by the mechanisms of capital Sharply written and deeply researched this book brings the Pacific Northwest into both the history of the Pacific World and the literature on borderlands that has until now focused largely on the U S and Mexico Pacific Connections is a brilliant achievement Bruce Cumings author of Dominion From Sea to Sea Pacific Ascendancy and American Power This wonderful book combines impressive archival research with a strong grounding in migration studies political economy cultural studies and critical race studies Chang examines weighty questions through compelling human dramas set in far flung places across the Pacific Rim This is transnational history at its best David Roediger coauthor of The Production of Difference Kornel Chang grapples with big ideas and big questions Tracing the global movements behind racial and national borders and unraveling the messy contradictions of empire at the dawn of the twentieth century Pacific Connections explores a history that continues to haunt us with particular resonance in our current moment Moon Ho Jung author of Coolies and Cane Race Labor and Sugar in the Age of Emancipation Pacific Connections is a capacious study that recasts the U S Canadian borderlands as a crucial site of migration trade and exclusion within the formation of Pacific empire Chang shows how Chinese merchants Japanese and European migrants indigenous traders Anglo labor activists and both South Asian and white radicals played important roles in the negotiations of sovereignty Lisa Lowe Professor of Comparative Literature University of California San Diego Cellular Migration and Formation of Neuronal Connections ,2013-05-06 The genetic molecular and cellular mechanisms of neural development are essential for understanding evolution and disorders of neural systems Recent advances in genetic molecular and cell biological methods have generated a massive increase in new information but there is a paucity of comprehensive and up to date syntheses references and historical perspectives on this important subject The Comprehensive Developmental Neuroscience series is designed to fill this gap offering the most thorough coverage of this field on the market today and addressing all aspects of how the nervous system and its components develop Particular attention is paid to the effects of abnormal development and on new psychiatric neurological treatments being developed based on our increased understanding of developmental mechanisms Each volume in the series consists of review style articles that average 15 20pp and feature numerous illustrations and full references Volume 2 offers 56 high level articles devoted mainly to Formation of Axons and Dendrites Migration Synaptogenesis Developmental Sequences in the Maturation of Intrinsic and Synapse Driven Patterns Series offers 144 articles for 2904 full color pages addressing ways in which the nervous system and its components develop Features leading experts in various subfields as Section Editors and article Authors All articles peer reviewed by Section Editors to ensure accuracy thoroughness and scholarship Volume 2 sections include coverage of mechanisms which regulate the formation of axons and dendrites cell migration synapse formation and maintenance during development and neural activity from cell intrinsic maturation to early correlated patterns of activity
