Miracles : 2 Volumes Craig S. Keener, 2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship s 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook com s Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume s argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume s argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports

Testament Interpretation James Luther Mays, David L. Petersen, Kent Harold Richards, 1995 The eighteen essays presented in this important volume will orient readers of the Old Testament in three ways They describe the most significant developments in Old Testament interpretation since the mid twentieth century They delineate the dominant trends of the present exploring the currents that are shaping new directions of interpretation And uniquely they suggest the directions that such interpretation will take at the beginning of the twenty first century The volume thus moves beyond chronicling the past and illuminating the present to establishing prospects for the future by considering the consequences of current trends in scholarship and suggesting what readers of the Old Testament may expect at the beginning of a new century of interpretation Written and edited by his friends and colleagues Old Testament Interpretation Past Present and Future honors the life and work of Gene M Tucker recently retired from the faculty of Candler School of Theology and President of the Society of Biblical Literature in 1996
