The Homecoming And My Lord The Baby:

My Lord, what a Morning Marian Anderson, 2002 My Lord What a Morning is a gentle and engrossing memoir abounding with the tender and inspiring stories of Marian Anderson's life in her own modest words From her humble but proud beginnings in south Philadelphia to international vocal renown the legendary contralto writes of triumph and adversity of being grounded in faith and surrounded by family and of the music that shaped her career Anderson published My Lord What a Morning in 1956 on the heels of her groundbreaking role as the first African American to perform at the Metropolitan Opera In it are bittersweet reminiscences of a working class childhood from her first job scrubbing the neighbors steps to the sorrow and upheaval of her father's untimely death Here are the stories of a young girl with prodigious talent and her warm remembrances of the teachers managers friends accompanists and fans who worked to foster it In addition she provides a veritable travelogue of her concerts across the globe and rare glimpses at the personal life of a woman more concerned with family than celebrity With eleven photographs and a touching new foreword by Anderson's nephew famed conductor and poet James DePreist this edition of My Lord What a Morning revives the classic portrait of a musical legend who was resilient in the bullying face of bigotry and gracious in the unfaltering glow of fame
