The Kings Musicke:

The King's Music Lula Stein, 2024-05-31 A love story through dimensions An unmotivated party girl finds herself in a fantastical world full of extraordinary colors and deadly music Ten years after her father's disappearance Rose wakes up in a medieval style world where the ruling king has magical powers that he uses for malice He turns his soldiers into animals in order to control them and enacts a strict curfew throughout the land which he enforces with hypnotic music Rose meets Mikhail a rugged hunter with whom she quickly falls in love He takes her to his camp of rebel elves who just want to live in peace and teaches her to fight While there Rose makes friends with Trixie a quirky obsessively upbeat artist Rose must find her place in this archaic world which lacks the basic commodities she is used to She soon realizes there might be a link between this world and her father's disappearance Will she be able to find the connections between her world and the one in which she has appeared

Association of Music Libraries for the year's best book on music librarianship bibliography and reference Blues Boy: The Life and Music of B. B. King Sebastian Danchin, 1998 Catalogue of (printed) music. Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books, 1884 Music at the Maison royale de Saint-Louis at Saint-Cyr Deborah Kauffman, 2018-07-24 The history of music at the Maison royale de Saint Louis at Saint Cyr the famous convent school founded by Madame de Maintenon and established by Louis XIV in 1686 as a royal foundation is both rich and intriguing its large repertory of music was composed expressly for young female voices by important composers working within significant contemporary musical genres liturgical chant sacred motets theatrical music and cantiques spirituels While these genres reflect contemporary styles and trends at the same time the works themselves were made to conform to the sensibilities and abilities of their intended performers Even as Jean Baptiste Moreau's music for Jean Racine's biblical tragedies Esther and Athalie shows a number of similarities to contemporary tragédies lyriques it departs from that more public genre in its brevity generally simpler solo writing and the integral use of the chorus The musical style of the choral numbers closely parallels that of other choral music in the repertory at Saint Cyr The liturgical chant sung in the church was composed by Guillaume Gabriel Nivers and is an example of plain chant musical a type of new ecclesiastical composition written during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries primarily for female religious communities in France The large repertory of petits motets short sacred Latin pieces for solo voice mostly composed by Nivers and Louis Nicolas Clément are simpler and more restrained than works by their contemporaries A close study of the motets reveals much about changes to musical style and performance practices at Saint Cyr during the eighteenth century The cantique spirituel a song with a spiritual text in the vernacular French language played a significant role in both the education and recreation of the girls at Saint Cyr Cantiques composed for the girls vary widely in terms of their style and difficulty ranging from simple strophic melodies to more sophisticated works in the style of contemporary airs In all cases the stylistic features of the music for Saint Cyr reflect a careful consideration of the needs and capabilities of the young singers of the school as well as an awareness of the rigorous requirements of Madame de Maintenon who kept a close watch over the propriety of all things relating to the piety behavior and image of her charges Reeled In: Pre-existing Music in Narrative Film Jonathan Godsall, 2018-10-09 How and why is pre-existing music used in films What effects can its use have on films and their audiences And what lasting impact can appropriation have on the music Reeled In is a comprehensive exploration of these questions considering the cinematic quotation of Beethoven symphonies Beatles songs and Herrmann scores alike in films ranging from the early sound era to the present day and in every role from main title theme to music playing in bar Incorporating a discussion of such factors as copyright and commerce alongside examination of texts and their effects this broad study is a significant contribution to the scholarship on music in screen media demonstrating that pre-existing music possesses unique attributes that can affect both how filmmakers construct their works and how audiences receive them to an extent regardless of the music's style genre and so on. This book also situates the reception of music by film and by audiences experiencing that music through film as significant processes within present day culture while more generally providing an illuminating case study of the kinds of borrowings, adaptations and reinventions that characterize much of today's art and entertainment. Calendar of Treasury Books: Treasury minutes, warrants, etc Great Britain. Public Record Office, 1905 A Philosophy of Music Edner Xavier, 2015-10-09 With a passion for languages and music Edner Xavier looks into archeology, anthropology, science and philosophy for the origins of sound, its influence on our lives and its impact on our societies. Starting from a thirty-five thousand year old sound, he goes on to evoke the memory and work of the composer J. S. Bach, particularly, and considers modern classical music and its future. In this essay, he also explores the importance and value of various profane and religious musical genres in order to show how they all can restore humanism and harmonize our planet. A Dictionary of Music and Musicians George Grove, 1879 A General History of the Science and Practice of Music John Hawkins, 2011-06-30 Hawkins' pioneering contribution to music history remains of significant interest today despite its unfavourable comparison to Burney's in his lifetime. A General History of the Science and Practice of Music, by Sir John Hawkins. Volume the First [- Fifth]. , 1776 A Biographical Dictionary of Old English Music Jeffrey Pulver, 1927 Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians J. A. Fuller Maitland, 1906 Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments. It shows how heritage films construct space through music, generating what Powrie calls 'third space' music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues. He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano, showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender. Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films, Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a 'crystal song'. Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image, Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past, present and future.
