Visions Anne Anderson, Robert Meyrick, Peter Nahum, 2008 We all have a vision of England the village the pub the thatched cottage with roses round the The British Surrealists Desmond Morris, 2022-03-03 F ted for their idiosyncratic and imaginative works the surrealists marked a pivotal moment in the history of modern art in Britain Many banded together to form the British Surrealist Group while others carved their own independent paths Here bestselling author and surrealist artist Desmond Morris one of the last surviving members of this important art movement draws on his personal memories and experiences to present the intriguing life stories and complex love lives of this wild and curious set of artists From the unpredictability of Francis Bacon to the rebelliousness of Leonora Carrington from the beguiling Eileen Agar to the brilliant Ceri Richards Morris brings his subjects foibles and frailties to the fore His vivid account is laced with his inimitable wit and profusely illustrated by images of the artists and their artworks Featuring thirty four surrealists some famous some forgotten Morriss intimate book takes us back in time to a generation that allowed its creative unconscious to drive their passions in both art and life With 105 illustrations British Artists and the Modernist Landscape Ysanne Holt, 2018-01-12 Title first published in 2003 In this detailed study of the landscapes and rural scenes of Britain and France made by artists like George

Clausen Philip Wilson Steer Augustus John Laura Knight J D Fergusson and Spencer Gore Ysanne Holt investigates the imaginary geographies behind the pictures and reconsiders the relationship between national identity Englishness and the native landscape Combining close investigation of important works with a broader enquiry into the appeal of the Mediterranean for an age preoccupied with cultural degeneracy and bodily health Ysanne Holt draws fascinating conclusions about the impact of modernism on the British tradition of landscape painting      Genius Loci John Dixon Hunt, 2022-10-24

From literature to landscape architecture an expansive contemplative exploration of the significance of place For ancient Romans genius loci was literally the genius of the place the presiding divinity who inhabited a site and gave it meaning While we are less attuned to divinity today we still sense that a place has significance In this book eminent garden historian John Dixon Hunt explores genius loci in many settings including contemporary land art the paintings of Paul and John Nash travel writers such as Henry James Paul Theroux and Lawrence Durrell on Provence Mexico and Cyprus and landscape architects who invent new meanings for a site This book is a nuanced thoughtful exploration of how places become more significant to us through the myriad ways we see talk about and remember them      The Modernity of English Art, 1914-30 David Peters Corbett, 1997 The modernity of English art reconceptualises the history of English painting from 1914 to the end of the 1920s Whereas most accounts have tended to see the period as marked by a tension between the native tradition and Modernism this ground breaking book rethinks the 1920s by situating both Modernist and non Modernist painters within a wider cultural history Established figures such as Paul Nash Edward Wadsworth and Wyndham Lewis as well as lesser known artists like Charles Sims John Armstrong and Ethelbert White are discussed and illustrated in a series of innovative readings within this context The modernity of English art offers a new account of painting in England after 1914 and argues for a strongly revisionist view of the significance of the modern during this important but neglected period in English art      Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05 Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes      Image, Text, Architecture Robin Wilson, 2016-03-09 Image Text Architecture brings a radical and detailed analysis of the modern and contemporary architectural media addressing issues of architectural criticism architectural photography and the role of journal editors It covers examples as diverse as an article by British artist Paul Nash in The Architectural Review 1940 an early project by French architects Lacaton Vassal published in the journal 2G 2001 and recent photography by Hisao Suzuki for the Spanish journal El Croquis At the intersection of image and text the book also reveals the role of the utopian impulse within the architectural media drawing on theories of utopian discourse from the work of the

French semiotician and art theorist Louis Marin and the American Marxist critic Fredric Jameson Through this it builds a fresh theoretical approach to journal studies revealing a hitherto unexplored dimension of latent or unconscious discourse within the media portrait of architecture The purpose of this enquiry is to highlight moments where a different type of critical voice emerges on the architectural journal page indicating the possibility of a more progressive engagement with the media as a platform for critical and speculative thinking about architecture and to rethink the journals role within architectural history

The English Rural Community Brian Short,1992-06-04 This book examines the English rural community past and present in its variety and dynamism The distinguished team of contributors brings a variety of disciplinary perspectives to bear upon the central issues of movement and migration the farm family and rural labour force the development of contrasting rural communities the portrayal of rural labour in both high and popular culture the changing nature of religious practice in the English countryside the rural urban fringe and the spread of notions of a rural English arcadia within a predominantly urban society Fully illustrated with accompanying maps paintings and photographs The English Rural Community provides an important and innovative overview of a subject where history myth and debate are inseparably entwined A full bibliography will assist a broad range of general readers and students of social history historical geography and development studies approaching the subject for the first time and the whole should establish itself as the central analytical account in an area where image and reality are notoriously hard to unravel

Great War Modernism Nanette Norris,2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time
