The Last Of How It Was A Novel:

The Last of How It Was T. R. Pearson, 1996-07-15 The last volume in an unforgettable trilogy with A Short History of a Small Place and Off for the Sweet Hereafter The Last Novel David Markson, 2007-05-10 In recent novels which have been called hypnotic stunning and exhilarating David Markson has created his own personal genre In this new work The Last Novel an elderly author referred to only as Novelist announces that since this will be his final effort he has carte blanche to do anything he damned well pleases Pressed by solitude and age Novelist's preoccupations inevitably turn to the stories of other artists their genius their lack of recognition and their deaths Keeping his personal history out of the story as much as possible Novelist creates an incantatory stream of fascinating triumphs and failures from the lives of famous and not so famous painters writers musicians sports figures and scientists As Novelist moves through his last years a minimalist self portrait emerges becoming an intricate masterpiece from David Markson's astonishing imagination Through these startling sometimes comic but often tragic anecdotes we unexpectedly discern the entire shape of a man's life The Last Books of H.G. Wells HG Wells, Rudy Rucker, Colin Wilson, 2013-04-02 This volume contains the two last works by HG Wells Nearing the end of his life increasingly distressed over the war Wells deals with death and apocalypse mortality and religion and with human insufficiency Mind at the End of its Tether One approaches it with awe You come across references to it everywhere Colin Wilson Priestly Koestler It seems to have been a wounding work something no one could agree with but something that couldn't be taken lightly Art Beck In the face of our universal inadequacy man must go steeply up or down and the odds seem to be all in favor of his going down and out If he goes up then so great is the adaptation demanded of him that he must cease to be a man Ordinary man is at the end of his tether HG Wells The Happy Turning Wells barbed fantasies about the afterlife take the forms of happy dream walks In one he converses with Jesus But being crucified upon the irreparable things that one has done realizing that one has failed that you have let yourself down and your poor silly disciples down and mankind down that the God in you has deserted you that was the ultimate torment Even on the cross I remember shouting out something about it Eli Eli lama sabachthani I said Did someone get that down he replied Don't you read the Gospels Good God No he said How can I I was crucified before all that The Last Book Sam Pickering, 2001 Readers familiar with Sam Pickering's delightful essays will certainly hope that the title of his latest collection is not intended as prophecy A true original Pickering offers observation on everyday life that never fail to sparkle with wit insight amusement and wonder Freely blending fact with fiction Writing makes liars of us all he notes Pickering ranges easily and amiably from his home base in Storrs Connecticut to his roots in middle Tennessee with numerous side trips to observe the natural world to reflect on the bonds of family and friends One essay finds him playing auctioneer at a local arts council event jollying the attendees with tattered country tales and fanciful extravagant claims for items being sold In another piece his tongue in cheek remarks about the split infinitive when quoted in a newspaper ignite a small controversy that lands him on radio talk shows and provokes a flood of sometimes angry e mail Yet whenever the irritations of the human world become a bit too wearying Pickering finds ready refreshment in the doings of birds and insects and the splash of sunlight on a tree or flower Throughout these sixteen essays Pickering implicitly heeds the advice he offers his son just before the boy much meet the parents of his prom date The good storyteller I instructed Francis heaps paragraph upon paragraph just like a waitress serving mashed potatoes in a family style restaurant Having dined at the table of a master storyteller readers will depart this collection feeling fully sated indeed well nourished The Author A native of Nashville Sam Pickering is a professor of English at the University of Connecticut and author of eleven previous books of essays His most recent collections are Living to Prowl Deprived of Happiness and A Little Fling

The Last Story Christopher Pike, 2002-09 Shari regains the memories of her previous life and becomes a best selling young adult author in the body of Jean Rodriguez

English Novel Hist 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993 Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895 1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

Food in the Novels of Thomas Hardy Kim Salmons, 2017-08-31 This book examines the role of food in the life and works of Thomas Hardy analysing the social political and historical context of references to meals eating and food production during the nineteenth century It demonstrates how Hardy s personal relationship to the rustic food of his childhood provides the impetus for his fiction and provides a historical breakdown of the key factors which influenced food regulation and production from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the fin de si cle This study explores how a sub textual narrative of food references in The Trumpet Major and Under the Greenwood Tree captures the instability of the pre industrial era and how food and eating act as a means of delineating and exploring character and environment in The Mayor of Casterbridge As well as this it considers rural femininity and the myth of the feminine pastoral in Tess of the d Urbervilles and charts the anxieties brought about by the shift in population from a rural to a predominantly urban one and its impact on food production in Jude the Obscure
