

The background of the poster is a dark, cloudy sky. A large, pale, greenish-grey skull is superimposed on the sky, appearing to be part of the clouds. A banner with the words 'FREI' and 'MACHT' is draped across the middle of the image. The banner is made of a dark material with white lettering. The word 'FREI' is on the right side, and 'MACHT' is on the left side. The banner is attached to a structure that looks like a gallows or a gallows-like structure. At the bottom of the image, there are silhouettes of several buildings, likely a concentration camp. A single strand of barbed wire runs horizontally across the top of the image, just below the title.

Salvation of the Soul and Islamic Devotion demonstrates that salvation is a central concept of the religion of Islam even though its meaning causes and results according to Islam may differ from what is taught by Christianity and other world religions The first chapter of the book presents the Islamic doctrine of salvation as set forth in the Quran and prophetic tradition The meaning of salvation is explored and the means to it on both human and divine sides are considered with special emphasis upon Islamic devotions The remaining eight chapters deal with both obligatory and supererogatory devotions prescribed by Islam concentrating on the methods of their correct performance on which salvation is largely dependent The material used in this book has been derived entirely from the original Islamic sources written in Arabic Efforts are made to make the book useful to both Muslim and non Muslim readers of English interested in the Islamic theory of salvation and acts of devotion
