Insiders' Guide to Austin Hilary Hylton,1999 An illustrated guide to Austin Texas Full Upright and Locked

Position: The Insider's Guide to Air Travel Mark Gerchick,2013-06-10 Sit back relax and enjoy the flight our pilots still intone But who are they kidding Former FAA chief counsel and senior aviation policy official Mark Gerchick unravels the unseen forces and little known facts that have reshaped our air travel experience since September 11 2001 With wry humor and unique insight Gerchick takes us past the jargon technicalities and all is well platitudes to expose the new normal of air travel from the packed planes and myriad hassles of everyday flying to the alchemy of air fares the airlines endless nickel and diming and the elusive hope of escape from steerage We find out what pilots do in the cockpit what s really worth worrying about when it comes to airline safety and why we get sick on planes Meanwhile Gerchick ponders the jarring disconnect between our quaint expectations of service with a smile and the grim reality of cramped seats no free lunch and watch yer knees With sympathy for both fliers and airlines Gerchick shows how the new business all business airline industry has finally learned to make money even in the face of crushing fuel costs and get millions of travelers where they re going every day safely and quickly From his singular vantage point as former aviation regulator and policymaker Gerchick gives us a straightforward insider s view of how hard it is for government to improve the traveler s lot by explaining the vagaries of consumer protection rules as well as the political realities and the economic forces at work While Gerchick offers reasons to hope for a better future in air travel he presents an unvarnished look at what we can expect good and bad when we take to the skies Some of it will reassure you some will make you cringe but all will open your eyes to what it means to fly today

The Insider's View Javid Chowdhury,2012-09-15 In this illuminating memoir Javid Chowdhury shares his varied experiences over four decades in the IAS the years in training when he imbibed the service s ethos and values his initiation into the rural universe as the District Development Officer and the District Magistrate and further on to his handling of the infamous Bank Securities and Jain Hawala scams as Director of Enforcement and Union Revenue Secretary With a light pen Chowdhury describes the changing social profile and attitudes of entrants to the higher civil services the nepotism in many garbs that he encountered as Establishment Officer and the stranger than fiction tortuous investigations of crimes He also offers his nuanced reflections on the dubious legacy Gujarat acquired as a result of the communal carnage in 2002 Chowdhury further examines how policymaking within government came to be whittled away under the neo liberal theology with key scrutiny being left to external expert think tanks and ad hoc groups As a consequence he perceives that public accountability came to be inordinately diffused resulting in the roller coaster governance that we witness today Sharp and insightful replete with telling anecdotes and amusing sketches of icons colleagues and ministers The Insider's View is a compelling portrait of the author a self confessed welfare socialist besides being an X ray of the innards of the bureaucracy

Dead Men's Propaganda Terhi Rantanen,2024-05-07 In Dead Men s Propaganda Ideology and Utopia in Comparative Communications Studies Terhi Rantanen investigates the shaping of early comparative communications research between the 1920s and

1950s notably the work of academics and men of practice in the United States Often neglected this intellectual thread is highly relevant to understanding the 21st century's challenges of war and rival streams of propaganda Borrowing her conceptual lenses from Karl Mannheim and Robert Merton Rantanen draws on detailed archival research and case studies to analyse the extent and importance of work outside and inside the academy illuminating the work of pioneers in the field Some of these were well known academics such as Harold Lasswell and the authors of the seminal book Four Theories of the Press Others operated in the world of news agencies such as Associated Press's Kent Cooper or were marginalised as migr scholars notably Paul Kecskemeti and Nathan Leites Her study shows how comparative communications from its very beginning can be understood as governed by the Mannheimian concepts of ideology and utopia and the power play between them The close relationship between these two concepts resulted in a bias in knowledge production contributed to dominant narratives of generational conflicts and to the demarcation of Insiders and Outsiders By focusing on a generation at the forefront of comparative communications at this pivotal time in the 20th century this book challenges orthodoxies in the intellectual histories of communication studies
