

Fine Fingerprints

Do you know how your fingerprints are like your signature? Both tell who you are. Although each person's fingerprints are unique, fingerprints fall into four main types. Whorl fingerprints look like circles within circles. The ridges on Arch fingerprints look like gentle hills. Tented Arch prints look like very steep hills. The fourth type of fingerprint is known as the Loop. The lines in this type of fingerprint curve around and form patterns that resemble loops.

Reading Well Grades 4-5 Cindy Barden, 2002-09-01 Milliken's Reading Well series provides teachers and parents with a wide variety of activities to use at home or in the classroom to enhance your reading program. Reading materials and styles of writing include realistic fiction, biography, poetry, fantasy, informational articles, myths, legends, tall tales, and plays or skits. The comprehension activities have been selected to provide opportunities for students to practice a variety of reading skills. A list of comprehension skills for all grade levels is included on the Reading Comprehension Chart on page 1. A variety of assessment rubrics helps you track progress in achieving those skills. Each book in the series is sequential, allowing students to build on skills previously learned. The various levels available allow you to select the one most appropriate for an individual student or class.
