Singh, 2004 Patterns of sublimation begin in childhood So does binary and hierarchical thinking The child must be trained to see in oppositions and on a scale of order So the story of nation and people race and culture begins as the bedtime story The author How else asks Rashna Singh do we explain the uncanny physical resemblance between Osama bin Laden and the evil Jaffar of Disney's motion picture Aladdin Singh provides a most persuasive argument for why these sentiments are both insidious and compelling and how they resonate to this day While she includes such classic examples as The Secret Garden Robinson Crusoe and the Babar series it is her inclusion of genuinely neglected fictions that lends her analyses a special richness In an engaging narrative style Singh demonstrates how constructions of character evolve into cultural imprints which encourage their young readers to choose the goodly side with little thought of badly repercussions Child Caring Ardis Gordon, 2005 The author an in home childcare provider for 13 years has organized her tried and true teaching techniques craft projects and recipes into a creative tool for parents and caregivers of young children Complete with everything from innovative field trip ideas to large alphabet pattern pages this book provides practical and imaginative ways to educate children while having fun Includes inspirational Biblical passages for adults as well as educational ones for children How to Talk about Videogames Ian Bogost, 2015-11-15 Videogames Aren't they the medium of the twenty first century The new cinema The apotheosis of art and entertainment the realization of Wagnerian gesamtkunstwerk The final victory of interaction over passivity No probably not Games are part art and part appliance part tableau and part toaster In How to Talk about Videogames leading critic Ian Bogost explores this paradox more thoroughly than any other author to date Delving into popular familiar games like Flappy Bird Mirror's Edge Mario Kart Scribblenauts Ms Pac Man FarmVille Candy Crush Saga Bully Medal of Honor Madden NFL and more Bogost posits that videogames are as much like appliances as they are like art and media We don't watch or read games like we do films and novels and paintings nor do we perform them like we might dance or play football or Frisbee Rather we do something in between with games Games are devices we operate so game critique is both serious cultural currency and self parody It is about figuring out what it means that a game works the way it does and then treating the way it works as if it were reasonable when we know it isn't Noting that the term games criticism once struck him as preposterous Bogost observes that the idea taken too seriously risks balkanizing games writing from the rest of culture severing it from the rivers and fields that sustain it As essential as it is he calls for its pursuit to unfold in this spirit God save us from a future of games critics gnawing on scraps like the zombies that fester in our objects of study CUES: Choose, Use, Enjoy, Share Phyllis B.
