who are willing to place themselves between a presidential candidate and a would be attacker In the milieu in which the Secret Service operates bodyguards have witnessed the terrors of election campaigns when presidential candidates have waded into crowds to shake hands with their supporters rode in open top cars and made sudden but risky changes to their schedules oblivious to the fact that in every campaign there have been people stalking candidates with ill intent Many stories revealed in Protecting the Presidential Candidates have remained largely hidden from the public some buried in newspaper archives and others in oral histories presidential libraries or official government documents The author draws on numerous sources including FBI files presidential biographies vice presidential biographies civilian bodyguard memoirs Secret Service agent memoirs White House staff memoirs and more so that these stories can now be told The book also allows readers to gain an insight into the personal as well as professional relationships between the candidate and the bodyguards who protected them Some candidates were so trusting of their bodyguards they embraced them as part of an inner circle of advisers Bodyguards have also witnessed embarrassing moments in a candidate s campaign and how intrusive they have been at the most delicate of moments The president s day is your day one agent said Nobody sees the president the way an agent does The Canadian Magazine ,1923
