better or worse America lives in the age of worlded literature Not the world literature of nations and nationalities considered from most powerful and wealthy to the least And not the world literature found with a map Rather the worlded literature of individuals crossing borders mixing stories and speaking in dialect Where translation struggles to be effective and background is itself another story The worlded literature of the multinational corporate publishing industry where the global market is all The essays in this collection from some of the most distinguished figures in American studies and literature explore what it means to consider American literature as world literature

Approaches to a "new" World Literature Lorely French, Marina Ortrud M. Hertrampf, 2023-11-20 The history of written Romani literature is only about 100 years old and thus Romani literatures are still being defined and consolidated At least two special features characterize this young literature on the one hand it is a multilingual diasporic world literature that often can be characterized as engaged literature and tries to deconstruct various age old stereotypes of the minority On the other hand female authors play a strikingly prominent role Female authors frequently achieve visibility with their texts on the national book markets Some authors appear in their own texts as committed feminists and or human rights activists For other authors sexuality and gender play a less prominent role in their works Additionally women often also play very central roles in texts by male authors Therefore this volume aims to explore the different facets of Romani literatures on two interrelated axes First the essays explore the status of several diverse works as transnational world literature Second the contributions examine the significance of writing as a form of social engagement and self empowerment What emerges is the observation that mainly women authors have been speaking out and standing up for their rights as women and Romnya With contributions from Oksana Marafioti Ana Bel n Mart n Sevillano Martin Shaw Kirsten von Hagen Marina Ortrud M Hertrampf Emilia Kledzik Florian Homann Paola Toninato Sidonia Bauer Lorely French Viola Parente Capkov

World Literature After Empire Pieter Vanhove, 2021-07-28 This book makes the case that the idea of a world in the cultural and philosophical sense is not an exclusively Western phenomenon During the Cold War and in the wake of decolonization a plethora of historical attempts were made to reinvent the notions of world literature world art and philosophical universality from an anticolonial perspective Contributing to recent debates on world literature the postcolonial and translatability the book presents a series of interdisciplinary and multilingual case studies spanning Europe the United States and China The case studies illustrate how individual anti imperialist writers and artists set out to remake the conception of the world in their own image by offering a different perspective centered on questions of race gender sexuality global inequality and class The book also discusses how international cultural organizations like the Afro Asian Writers Bureau UNESCO and PEN International attempted to shape this debate across Cold War divides
