

The Story of Western Architecture

Bill Risebevo

Religious
architecture
has been the most important
type of building
in the West
since the beginning of time.

A building
with a central tower and
spire is called a church.
It is a place where people
go to worship
and pray.
The church
is the most important building in the West.

These were the first of many

The church
was the first building to be built with stone and wood.

An important part of the church was the tower. It was the most important part of the church.

The tower was the most important part of the church. It was the most important part of the church.
