The Story of New Zealand : Past and Present - Savage and Civilized Arthur S. Thomson, 1859 The Story of New Zealand Arthur S. Thomson, 2011-11-24 Thomson's two volume account published in 1859 deals with both the Maori and the effects of discovery and settlement by Europeans History of New Zealand George William Rusden, 1895 A Concise History of New Zealand Philippa Mein Smith, 2012 The story of this rugged and dynamic land is beautifully narrated from its origins in Gondwana to the twenty first century The Story of New Zealand Alfred Hamish Reed, 1946 On the Hoof: The Untold Story of Drovers in New Zealand Ruth Entwistle Low, 2014-07-23 Since the European settlement of New Zealand drovers have moved stock on the hoof from ships and stations to new homes scattered throughout the country In this book the first of its kind Ruth Entwistle Low interviews almost 60 old time drovers revealing and reliving the practice of droving and the people who have underpinned it Through original research colourful storytelling and the voices of the drovers themselves Ruth describes what the job entailed where and how they travelled the problems they faced the ups and downs of the lifestyle Ranging all over rural New Zealand from our colonial past to the droving industry's twilight years Ruth documents both the day to day and the dramatic in a gripping narrative that will appeal to a wide body of readers On the Hoof is a truly special book a heartland history of New Zealand that seeks not simply to explain the drover and the droving way of life but to honour them also A History of New Zealand in 100 Objects Jock Phillips, 2022-10-18 Authored by award winning historian Jock Phillips The History of New Zealand in 100 Objects is gripping inclusive often revelatory and deeply human A colourful and characterful retelling of our shared past relevant to today particular to all of us The sewing kete of an unknown 18th century Maori woman the Endeavour cannons that fired on waka in 1769 the bagpipes of an Irish publican Paddy Galvin the school uniform of Harold Pond a Napier Tech pupil in the Hawke's Bay quake the Biko shields that tried to protect protestors during the Springbok tour in 1981 Winston Reynolds remarkable home made Hokitika television set the oldest working TV in the country the soccer ball that was a tribute to Tariq Omar a victim of the Christchurch Mosque shootings and so many more these are items of quiet significance and great personal meaning taonga carrying stories that together represent a dramatic full of life history for everyday New Zealanders The Penguin History of New Zealand Michael King, 2011 New Zealand was the last country in the world to be discovered and settled by humankind It was also the first to introduce full democracy Between those events and in the century that followed the franchise the movements and the conflicts of human history have been played out more intensively and more rapidly in New Zealand than anywhere else on Earth The Penguin History of New Zealand a new book for a new century tells that story in all its colour and drama The narrative that emerges in an inclusive one about men and women Maori and Pakeha It shows that British motives in colonising New Zealand were essentially humane and that Maori far from being passive victims of a fatal impact coped heroically with colonisation and survived by selectively accepting and adapting what Western technology and culture had to offer This book a triumphant fruit of careful research wide reading and judicious assessment was an unprecedented best seller from the time of its first publication in 2003

A History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes,2016-02-15 What would a history of New Zealand look like that rejected Thomas Carlyle s definition of history as the biography of great men and focused instead on the experiences of women One that shifted the angle of vision and examined the stages of this country s development from the points of view of wives daughters mothers grandmothers sisters and aunts That considered their lives as distinct from though often unwillingly influenced by those of history s great men In her ground breaking History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes provides just such a history This is more than an account of women in New Zealand from those who arrived on the first waka to the Grammy and Man Booker Prize winning young women of the current decade It is a comprehensive history of New Zealand seen through a female lens Brookes argues that while European men erected the political scaffolding to create a small nation women created the infrastructure necessary for colonial society to succeed Concepts of home marriage and family brought by settler women and integral to the developing state transformed the lives of M ori women The small scale of New Zealand society facilitated rapid change so that by the twenty first century women are no longer defined by family contexts In her long awaited book Barbara Brookes traces the factors that drove that change Her lively narrative draws on a wide variety of sources to map the importance in women s lives not just of legal and economic changes but of smaller joys such as the arrival of a piano from England or the freedom of riding a bicycle
