Lancaster,2015-06-25 I am a North American Lakota Indian and live on the edge of the Great Plains where the prairie joins with tall grasslands and where wide valleys and dense woodlands can be found I was born in the shadow of the Black Hills a sacred place for my people and those of our kind We were a part of nature and moved with ease across the land All life was precious and we believed in the love of the Great Spirit We honoured our Mother the Earth and loved her creatures as brothers We looked to the rivers with the same respect that we had for the land and we tried to treat all men as equal for all things are connected We knew the flame which burns within is the true person whom we are and how our bodies only exist while we walk on this Earth plane Our spirit is the part which journeys on It can never die and has travelled through many lives in many shapes and forms and now moves in this being which is I My story is one which you may care to read a story of those who lived long ago Our people knew well of the Natural Laws and followed the teachings passed down through Tribal Elders who openly shared their knowledge of life here and beyond I am I have been and I always will be When my earth body dies my spirit will again fly free and one day will hopefully be able to revisit this world to talk with those of like minds I am the Spirit within I am the part of you that can touch the stars and tread the ocean feel the silence and speak the thought without me all is nought I am the Spirit within Inspirational Story and Verse from Just Poems The Wrong Story Greg Shupak,2018-05-10 The Wrong Story lays bare the flaws in the way large media organizations present the Palestine Israel issue It points out major fallacies in the fundamental conceptions that underpin their coverage namely that Palestinians and Israelis are both victims to comparable extents and are equally responsible for the failure to find a solution that the problem is extremists often religiously motivated ones who need to be sidelined in favour of moderates and that Israel s uses of force are typically justifiable acts of self defense Weaving together the existing literature with new insights Shupak offers an up to date and tightly focused guide that exposes the distorted way these issues are presented and why each is misguided The Queen of the Savannah: A Story of the Mexican War Gustave Aimard,2020-09-28

True Story, I Swear It - Maybe Harvey Cappel,2013-08-21 For as far back as I can remember I have told stories I can take nearly any situation or event and make a funny story of it Life is too short to miss out on the fun part Also for many years I have been writing articles and short stories for various newsletters newspapers and even national magazines some paid but most for free I enjoy writing to entertain to inform and to educate I have a different view of the world than the average person and not afraid of sharing it I have for many years wanted to write a book but thought that anything I would have to say would be out of date before I finished the book And then one day not too long ago I had an epiphanylife stories humor fun philosophy and basic life lessons dont go out of date So I wrote this book The book is a collection of family stories tall tales a few reprints of previously published newspaper articles a little fun philosophy and a technical issue or two Except for a very few of the stories as noted in the stories all are original works of mine The contents are as you will notice printed and listed simply alphabetically I thought this random arrangement would minimize the potential for one to lose interest and fall asleep reading various versions of the same thing My intent in writing this book was not just to make some extra cash but to put down in writing in a more permanent form some of my lifes experiences crazy ideas and a little technical correctness for family friends and a few others to enjoy Please enjoy
