the essay which is set second in this collection I wrote speaking of the early English composers that at length the first great wave of music culminated in the works of Tallis and Byrde Byrde is infinitely greater than Tallis and seems worthy indeed to stand beside Palestrina Generally one modifies one s opinions as one grows older very often it is necessary to reverse them This one on Byrde I adhere to indeed I am nearly proud of having uttered it so long ago I had then never heard the Mass in D minor But in the latter part of 1899 Mr R R Terry the organist of Downside Abbey and one of Byrde s latest editors invited me to the opening of St Benedict s Church Ealing where the Mass in D minor was given and there I heard one of the most splendid pieces of music in the world adequately rendered under very difficult conditions I use the phrase advisedly one of the most splendid pieces of music in the world When the New Zealander twenty centuries hence reckons up the European masters of music he will place Byrde not very far down on the list of the greatest and he will esteem Byrde s Mass one of the very finest ever written The Phantom of the Paradise Jim Jorgen,2007 Richard Wagner His Life and His Dramas:

critic of The New York Tribune who carefully read the manuscript of this work and pointed out its errors The value of Mr Krehbiel s revision and his hints cannot be over estimated Thanks are also due to Mr Emil Paur conductor of the Philharmonic Society of New York for certain inquiries made in Europe The records of first performances have been prepared with great care and with no little labour For the dates of those at most of the European cities the author is indebted to an elaborate article by E Kastner published in the Allgemeine Musik Zeitung of Berlin for July and August 1896 The original casts have been secured as far as possible from the programmes For that of the Flying Dutchman at Dresden incorrectly given in many books on Wagner the author is indebted to Hofkapellmeister Ernst von Schuch who obtained it from the records of the Hoftheater The name of the singer of the Herald in the first cast of Lohengrin missing in all the published histories was supplied by Hermann Wolff of Berlin from the records of Weimar The casts of first performances in this country are not quite complete simply because the journalists of twenty five years ago did not realise their obligations to posterity The casts were not published in full The records have disappeared The theatres in some cases as in that of the Stadt have long ago gone out of existence and nothing can be done As far as given the casts are the author believes perfectly correct
