A Home of Their Own Garry Jenkins,2011-09-15 Battersea Dogs Cats Home is the best known animal sanctuary in the world Since it first opened its doors in 1860 millions of abandoned and abused pets have benefited from its refuge Around the world Battersea is a byword for compassion and hope It hasn't always been this way Victorian London had little time for canine strays and homeless dogs were routinely destroyed During its early years the Home was threatened by financial crises eviction and legal action by neighbours upset by the constant barking Yet the Home not only survived it thrived Here is the story of this remarkable institution At its heart are the characters that made Battersea what it is today from Mary Tealby the extraordinary founder of the Home to Airedale Jack the dog who became a hero in the trenches of the Great War Through both triumphs and tragedies it is a book that will warm the hearts of animal lovers everywhere Battersea Dogs & Cats Home: Buddy and Holly's the first book to explore women's leading role in animal protection in nineteenth century Britain drawing on rich archival sources Women founded bodies such as the Battersea Dogs Home the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds and various groups that opposed vivisection They energetically promoted better treatment of animals both through practical action and through their writings such as Anna Sewell's Black Beauty Yet their efforts were frequently belittled by opponents or decried as typifying female sentimentality and hysteria Only the development of feminism in the later Victorian period enabled women to show that spontaneous fellow feeling with animals was a civilising force Women's own experience of oppressive patriarchy bonded them with animals who equally suffered from the dominance of masculine values in society and from an assumption that all powerful humans were entitled to exploit animals at will Animals in Victorian Literature and Culture Laurence W. Mazzeno,Ronald D. Morrison,2017-02-20 This collection includes twelve provocative essays from a diverse group of international scholars who utilize a range of interdisciplinary approaches to analyze real and representational animals that stand out as culturally significant to Victorian literature and culture Essays focus on a wide range of canonical and non canonical Victorian writers including Charles Dickens Anthony Trollope Anna Sewell Emily Bronte James Thomson Christina Rossetti and Richard Marsh and they focus on a diverse array of forms fiction poetry journalism and letters These essays consider a wide range of cultural attitudes and literary treatments of animals in the Victorian Age including the development of the animal protection movement the importation of animals from the expanding Empire the acclimatization of British animals in other countries and the problems associated with increasing pet ownership The collection also includes an Introduction co written by the editors and Suggestions for Further Study and will prove of interest to scholars and students across the multiple disciplines which comprise Animal Studies Lost, Stolen Or Strayed Gloria Cotteloe,1971
