English of the famous three volume set of Feng Menglong's popular Chinese vernacular stories. These tales, which come from a variety of sources some dating back centuries before their compilation in the seventeenth century, were assembled and circulated by Feng who not only saved them from oblivion but raised the status of vernacular literature and provided material for authors of the great Ming 1368-1644 and Qing 1644-1911 novels to draw upon. This trilogy has been compared to Boccaccio's Decameron and the stories of A Thousand and One Nights. Peopled with scholars, emperors, ministers, generals and a gallery of ordinary men and women, merchants and artisans, prostitutes and courtesans, matchmakers and fortune tellers, monks and nuns, thieves and imposters, the stories provide a vivid panorama of the bustling world of late imperial China. The longest volume in the Sanyan trilogy, Stories to Awaken the World, is presented in full here, including sexually explicit elements often omitted from Chinese editions. Shuhui Yang and Yunqin Yang have provided a rare treat for English readers: an unparalleled view of the art of traditional Chinese short fiction. As with the first two collections in the trilogy, Stories Old and New and Stories to Caution the World, their excellent renditions of the forty stories in this collection are eminently readable, accurate, and lively. They have included all of the poetry that is scattered throughout the stories as well as Feng Menglong's interlinear and marginal comments which convey the values shared among the Chinese cultural elite. Point out what original readers of the collection were being asked to appreciate in the writer's art and reveal Feng's moral engagement with the social problems of his day. The Yangs' translations rank among the very finest English versions of Chinese fiction from any period. For other titles in the collection go to <http://www.washington.edu/uwpress/books/ying.html>

Literary History of Sanskrit Buddhism Gushtasp Shah Kaikhushro Nariman, 1923      Ornament in Indian Architecture Margaret Prosser Allen, 1991. This work visually presents some of India's great architectural achievements viewed by a Westerner as an art form. Strong black and white photographic details of existing buildings starting with the second century B.C. stupa at Sanchi and concluding with the Indo-Muslim architecture of the Moghul period are presented. Sanyan Stories, 2015-01-01. Presented here are nine tales from the celebrated Ming dynasty Sanyan collection of vernacular stories compiled and edited by Feng Menglong 1574-1646, the most knowledgeable connoisseur of popular literature of his time in China. The stories he collected were pivotal to the development of Chinese vernacular fiction and their importance in the Chinese literary canon and world literature has been compared to that of Boccaccio's Decameron and the stories of One Thousand and One Nights. Peopled with scholars, emperors, ministers, generals and a gallery of ordinary men and women in their everyday surroundings, merchants and artisans, prostitutes and courtesans, matchmakers and fortune tellers, monks and nuns, servants and maids, thieves and imposters, the stories provide a vivid panorama of the bustling world of imperial China before the end of the Ming dynasty. The three volumes constituting the Sanyan set, Stories Old and New, Stories to Caution the World, and Stories to Awaken the World, each containing forty tales, have been translated in their entirety by Shuhui Yang and Yunqin Yang The stories in this volume were selected for their popularity with American readers and their usefulness as texts in classes on Chinese and comparative literature These unabridged translations include all the poetry that is scattered throughout the original stories as well as Feng Menglong's interlinear and marginal comments which point out what seventeenth century readers of the stories were being asked to appreciate NCERT History Class 12 Dr. Brajesh Kumar Srivastava, 2025-03-07
