Storytellers Rendezvous Canadian Stories To Tell To Children:

Storytellers' Rendezvous Lorrie Anderson, Irene Elizabeth Aubrey, Louise McDiarmid, 1979 Canadian Books for Young People/Livres canadiens pour la jeunesse, 3e Irma McDonough, 1980-12-15 This third completely revised edition contains hundreds of new entries for a total of almost 2 000 children's books and magazines carefully selected and described by a team of children's librarians. Entries are arranged by subject with reading levels indicated where necessary and are also listed in a separate author title index. A list of prize winning Canadian children's books and a basic book list for librarians, teachers and parents are included in this charmingly illustrated volume. The Riverside Anthology of Children's Literature Judith Saltman, 1985 An anthology of nursery tales and rhymes, nonsense verse, poetry, folklore, mythology, epics, fiction and non-fiction from a variety of sources. A Bibliography of Canadian Folklore in English Edith Fowke, Carole Henderson-Carpenter, 1982-12-15 This book is the only comprehensive bibliography of Canadian folklore in English. The 3877 different items are arranged by genres: folktales, folk music and dance, folk speech and naming, superstitions, popular beliefs, folk medicine and the supernatural, folk life and customs, folk art and material culture, and within genres by ethnic groups: Anglophone and Celtic, Francophone, Indian and Inuit, and other cultural groups. The items include reference books, periodicals, articles, records, films, biographies of scholars and informants, and graduate theses. Each item is annotated through a coding that indicates whether it is academic or popular, its importance to the scholar, and whether it is suitable for young people. The introduction includes a brief survey of Canadian folklore studies, putting this work into academic and social perspective. The book covers all the important items and most minor items dealing with Canadian folklore published in English up to the end of 1979. It is concerned with legitimate Canadian folklore, whether transplanted from other countries and preserved here or created here to reflect the culture of this country. It distinguishes between authentic folklore presented as collected and popular treatments in which the material has been rewritten by the authors. Intended primarily for scholars of folklore, international as well as Canadian, the book will also be of use to scholars in anthropology, cultural geography, oral history, and other branches of Canadian culture studies, as well as to librarians, teachers, and the general public. Where We Live 4: Teacher's Guidebook Sylvia Hill, 1986-01-01 This book provides valuable background resources for use with the books in the Where We Live series of readers. Intended for use with the five titles in the Where We Live series: Cedric and the North End Kids, What's a Friend About Nellie, and Me Marco and Michela. The Golden Hawks guidebook features four-part lesson plans, scope and sequence charts, reproducible blackline masters, and annotated bibliography. Where We Live 4 is a useful teaching tool supporting a great series of books for Canadian children. The Blind Man and the Loon Craig Mishler, 2020-02-17 The story of the Blind Man and the Loon is a living Native folktale about a blind man who is betrayed by his mother or wife but whose vision is magically restored by a kind loon. Variations of this tale are told by Native storytellers all across Alaska, arctic Canada, Greenland, the Northwest Coast, and even into the Great Basin and the Great Plains. As the story has traveled through cultures and ecosystems over many centuries individual storytellers have added cultural and local ecological details to the tale creating countless variations In The Blind Man and the Loon The Story of a Tale folklorist Craig Mishler goes back to 1827 tracing the story's emergence across Greenland and North America in manuscripts books and in the visual arts and other media such as film music and dance theater Examining and comparing the story's variants and permutations across cultures in detail Mishler brings the individual storyteller into his analysis of how the tale changed over time considering how storytellers and the oral tradition function within various societies Two maps unequivocally demonstrate the routes the story has traveled The result is a masterful compilation and analysis of Native oral traditions that sheds light on how folktales spread and are adapted by widely diverse cultures Canadian Children's Literature ,1997

Canadian Materials ,1979 An awareness list for school resource centres of print and nonprint materials Canadian Books for Young People ,1988 Blessed be Our Table Neil Paynter,2003 This book of graces and reflections integrates thankfulness with a burning passion for justice both of which are central to our relationship with a bountiful provider God with the whole creation with each other and with our brothers and sisters throughout the world who because of greed and injustice will not receive their daily bread This work invites us to pray and recommit ourselves to act for justice each time we join in the simple sharing of a meal It is also very much a celebration of food of diversity of community and sharing of creator and creation The graces in this book are from a wide range of contributors from Iona Community members associates and friends from other religious communities and houses of welcome from humanitarian organisations from different faiths and traditions In Search of Canadian Materials ,1979 Children's Literature in Canada Elizabeth Waterston,1992 In Review; Canadian Books for Young People ,1978 Publications Catalogue - Canadian Library Association Canadian Library Association,1990 School Libraries in Canada ,1982 Storytellers' Encore Irene Elizabeth Aubrey,Louise McDiarmid,Lorrie Andersen,Canadian Library Association,1984 Grade level 2 3 4 p e i t BCLA Reporter ,1978 Canadian Books for Young People André Gagnon,Ann Gagnon,1988 CM ,1986 Canadian Library Journal ,1986
