Mary Schreiber combines personal experience and professional research with the programming expertise of youth librarians from across the country in this guide for libraries looking to make an even greater impact on the level of literacy attained by the children they serve. In Partnering with Parents, readers will find a wealth of information on how to talk to caregivers about the different stages of a child's reading life, what books to recommend to excite both caregivers and children about reading, and ways to encourage parent and caregiver participation in library programming, with additional information on working with and providing programming for diverse families. Whether you are a veteran in the profession or brand new to working with families, you will find something in this book that will help you to make your library a more integral part of the education community.

Hopkins' new book fuses them together. Designed for children ages 1 to 3 years old, the book's 52 storytimes promote pre-reading skills such as print motivation, vocabulary, and narrative skills. Based on themes familiar to children, including bears, bugs, springtime, clothing, and hats, flowers, and gardens, weather, music, pets, transportation, pirates, and many more, each storytime includes a list of books, action songs or rhymes, along with their words, a flannelboard experience, plus instruction for two to three art activities. This complete toddler storytime resource also includes an introduction which discusses the differences between art activities and craft activities, a toddler's ability in creating art, and why children this age should be exposed to art activities. Advice for using different art mediums such as food, plus important safety considerations. Pointers on conducting playful yet educational storytimes. Tips for finding inexpensive art materials, with a list of recommended supplies to keep on hand. More than 100 drawings, all easy to reproduce and modify. Weblinks to Artsy Helper Sheets, downloadable supplements complete with phrases, tips, and tricks that inform parents and caregivers about the benefits of doing art activities with toddlers.
