Aspects of the History of Slovene Karst (1545-2008) Trevor R. Shaw,2010-01-01

The Fear of Barbarians Tzvetan Todorov,2010-10-15 The relationship between Western democracies and Islam rarely entirely comfortable has in recent years become increasingly tense A growing immigrant population and worries about cultural and political assimilation exacerbated by terrorist attacks in the United States Europe and around the world have provoked reams of commentary from all parts of the political spectrum a frustrating majority of it hyperbolic or even hysterical In The Fear of Barbarians the celebrated intellectual Tzvetan Todorov offers a corrective a reasoned and often highly personal analysis of the problem rooted in Enlightenment values yet open to the claims of cultural difference Drawing on history anthropology and politics and bringing to bear examples ranging from the murder of Theo van Gogh to the French ban on headscarves

Todorov argues that the West must overcome its fear of Islam if it is to avoid betraying the values it claims to protect True freedom Todorov explains requires us to strike a delicate balance between protecting and imposing cultural values acknowledging the primacy of the law and yet strenuously protecting minority views that do not interfere with its aims Adding force to Todorov's arguments is his own experience as a native of communist Bulgaria his admiration of French civic identity and Western freedom is vigorous but non nativist an inclusive vision whose very flexibility is its core strength The record of a penetrating mind grappling with a complicated multifaceted problem The Fear of Barbarians is a powerful important book a call not to arms but to thought

Demetrius James Romm, 2022-11-29 A portrait of one of the ancient world's first political celebrities who veered from failure to success and back again The life of Demetrius 337-283 BCE serves as a through line to the forty years following the death of Alexander the Great 323-282 BCE a time of unparalleled turbulence and instability in the ancient world With no monarch able to take Alexander's place his empire fragmented into five pieces Capitalizing on good looks youth and sexual prowess Demetrius sought to weld those pieces together and recover the dream of a single world state with a new Alexander himself at its head He succeeded temporarily but in crucial colossal engagements a massive invasion of Egypt a siege of Rhodes that went on a full year and the Battle of Ipsus he came up just short He ended his career in a rash invasion of Asia and became the target of a desperate manhunt only to be captured and destroyed by his own son in law

The Barbarian North in Medieval Imagination Robert Rix, 2014-11-13 This book examines the sustained interest in legends of the pagan and peripheral North tracing and analyzing the use of an out of Scandinavia legend Scandinavia as an ancestral homeland in a wide range of medieval texts from all over Europe with a focus on the Anglo Saxon tradition The pagan North was an imaginative region which attracted a number of conflicting interpretations To Christian Europe the pagan North was an abject Other but it also symbolized a place from which ancestral strength and energy derived Rix maps how these discourses informed national legends of ancestral origins showing how an out of Scandinavia legend can be found in works by several familiar writers including Jordanes Bede Fredegar Paul the Deacon Freculph and thelweard The book investigates how legends of northern warriors were first created in classical texts and since re calibrated to fit different medieval understandings of identity and ethnicity Among other things the out of Scandinavia tale was exploited to promote a legacy of barbarian vigor that could withstand the negative cultural effects of Roman civilization This volume employs a variety of perspectives cutting across the disciplines of poetry history rhetoric linguistics and archaeology After years of intense critical interest in medieval attitudes towards the classical world Africa and the East this first book length study of the North will inspire new debates and repositionings in medieval studies

Düring,Tesse D. Stek,2018-03-29 The Archaeology of Imperial Landscapes examines the transformation of rural landscapes and societies that formed the backbone of ancient empires in the Near East and Mediterranean Through a comparative approach to archaeological data it analyses the patterns of transformation in widely differing imperial contexts in the ancient world Bringing together a range of studies by an international team of scholars the volume shows that empires were dynamic diverse and experimental polities and that their success or failure was determined by a combination of forceful interventions as well as the new possibilities for those dominated by empires to collaborate and profit from doing so By highlighting the processes that occur in rural and peripheral landscapes the volume demonstrates that the archaeology of these non urban and literally eccentric spheres can provide an important contribution to our understanding of ancient empires The bottom up approach to the study of ancient empires is crucial to understanding how these remarkable socio political organisms could exist and persist Kings of Greek Mythology Burton Menoni,2016-01-24 Profiling the most notable of the Mythological Kings of Greece Persecution in 1 Peter Travis B. Williams,2012-11-01 In Persecution in 1 Peter Travis B Williams offers a comprehensive and detailed socio historical investigation into the nature of suffering in 1 Peter While interpreters commonly portray the conflict situation addressed by the epistle as unofficial persecution consisting of discrimination and verbal abuse Williams demonstrates the inadequacy of this modern consensus by situating the letter against the backdrop of conflict management in first century CE Asia Minor

Drawing on a wide range of historical evidence and on modern social psychological perspectives this work reconstructs the conflict situation of the Anatolian audience and offers important insights regarding the legal culpability of Christians following the Neronian persecution the roles of local and provincial authorities in the judicial process and the variegated conflict experiences of different socio economic groups within the Christian communities The Pre-Platonic

Philosophers Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche, 2001 Roughly formulating many of the themes he later developed at length Nietzsche sketches concepts such as the will to power eternal recurrence and self overcoming and links them to specific pre Platonic This translation complete with Nietzsche's own extensive sidenotes and philological citations is accompanied by a prologue introductory essay and extensive translator's commentary The ^A History and Practice of Ancient

Astronomy James Evans, 1998-10-01 The subject of this book is the Western astronomical tradition from ancient Babylonia to the European Renaissance with special emphasis on the Greek period Throughout the book two questions recur what evidence permits us to reconstruct the astronomy of the ancient past How was astronomy actually practiced The book is meticulously documented and makes full use of primary sources as well as modern historical scholarship It is richly illustrated and is unusual for its attention to the material culture of ancient astronomy The most striking aspect of the book is its attention to the details of astronomical practice Lectures on the Philosophy of Art Georg Wilhelm Friedrich

Hegel, 2014 Hegel gave lecture series on aesthetics or the philosophy of art in various university terms but never published a book of his own on this topic His student H G Hotho compiled auditors transcripts from these separate lecture series and produced from them the three volumes on aesthetics in the standard edition of Hegel's collected works Annemarie Gethmann Siefert has now published one of these transcripts the Hotho transcript of the 1823 lecture series and accompanied it with a very extensive introductory essay treating many issues pertinent to a proper understanding of Hegel's views on art She persuasively argues that the evidence shows Hegel never finalized his views on the philosophy of art but modified them in significant ways from one lecture series to the next In addition she makes the case that Hotho's compilation not only concealed this circumstance by the harmony he created out of diverse source materials but also imposed some of his own views on aesthetics views that differ from Hegel's and that the ongoing interpretation of the aesthetics part of Hegel's philosophy has unfortunately taken to be Hegel's own This translation of the German volume which contains the first publication of the Hotho transcript and Gethmann Siefert's essay makes these important materials accessible to the English reader materials that should put the English speaking world's future understanding and interpretation of Hegel's philosophy of art on a sounder footing Greek Skepticism; a Study in Epistemology Charlotte L. Stough, 1969-01-01 Current Literature, 1928
