Melodrama, Masculinity and International Art Cinema Alistair Fox, 2022-10-04 This book presents a series of essays that reassess the role of melodrama in a number of touchstone films in the art cinema tradition that explore the subjective experience of a central male protagonist announcing the emergence of a genre that has progressively proliferated in contemporary cinema Case studies by such notable auteurs as Vittorio De Sica Satyajit Ray Vincente Minnelli Pier Paolo Pasolini Ingmar Bergman François Truffaut Jacques Demy Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Luca Guadagnino demonstrate how the art house male melodrama offers a vision of masculinity that is sexually fluid fragmented unstable and often incapacitated to the point of paralysis rather than the heroic stereotypes commonly found in popular genre cinema

Film Noir and the Cinema of Paranoia Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2019-07-29 Film Noir and the Cinema of Paranoia is an overview of 20th and 21st century noir and fatalist film practice from 1945 onwards The book demonstrates the ways in which American cinema has inculcated a climate of fear in our daily lives as reinforced starting in the 1950s by television and later videocassettes the web and the Internet to create by the early 21st century a hypersurveillance atmosphere in which no one can avoid the barrage of images that continually assault our senses The book begins with the return of American soldiers from World War II liberated from war in the Pacific by the newly created atomic bomb which will come to rule American consciousness through much of the 1950s and 1960s and then in a newer more small scale way become a fixture of terrorist hardware in the post paranoid ear of the 21st century Film Noir and the Cinema of Paranoia is constructed in six chapters each highlighting a particular raising of the cinematic stakes in the creation of a completely immersible universe of images Selling points Expands the definition of noir to include numerous lesser known works Deals with Red Scare films of the 1950s in the US Examines the dark side of the 1960s or films that questioned the emerging counterculture Explores such neo noir films as The Last Seduction 1993 Angel Heart 1987 The Grifters 1990 Red Rock West 1993 The Usual Suspects 1995 Mulholland Drive 2001 L A Confidential 1997 and Memento 2000 Details the noir aspects of the cybernetic age both in online and videogame uses

Queering Multiculturalism Aret

Karademir,2018-09-15 Queering Multiculturalism argues for group specific rights for ethno cultural minorities but without ignoring that such rights may lead to ethnic chauvinism balkanization and the cultural marginalization of minorities within minorities such as ethnic LGBT people Thus it aims to construct a liberal theory of minority rights to accommodate ethno cultural diversity without destroying ethno sexual diversity and without privileging one type of minority group over another

Homo Ludens as a Comic Character in Selected American Films Artur Skweres,2016-10-25 This book reveals the hitherto critically disregarded ludic elements in popular American comedy films building on and expanding the theories developed by Johan Huizinga in his classic study Homo Ludens 1938 and Roger Caillois in Les jeux et les hommes 1958 To address the lack of attention paid to the play principle in film comedy studies this book focuses exclusively on the elements typical of play that can be found in movies It introduces two new categories describing play neiros and pragma which allow analysis of how play in comedies is influenced by the relations between the player and non players The text is supplemented by the use of the author s drawings which because of their analytical and selective nature are used as a tool for visual study The play principle has a long tradition in American humor and the films examined here were chosen for their popularity and wide appeal often acting as vehicles for Hollywood stars e g Chevy Chase Dan Aykroyd Bill Murray Steve Martin Eddie Murphy Goldie Hawn Mike Myers Jackie Chan or Chris Tucker The actors status allowed the filmmakers to construct situations in which the protagonists distanced themselves from the fictional situation It is argued that the playful detachment from reality typifying many of the fictional characters portrayed by actors with star status is characteristic of the play principle in film Another major consideration is the hotly debated notion of the accomplishment of goals in playful activities and the book strongly supports the position that in narratives play can but does not have to yield important results The introduction of the categories of neiros and pragma in play serves to highlight the complex relation between playfulness and practicality in the films discussed Building on a comprehensive analysis of the ludic elements in selected popular American comedies the book makes an important contribution to film studies providing a unique perspective through its focus on the concept of homo ludens as a comic hero

The British Sitcom Spinoff Film Stephen Glynn,2023-12-07 This book constitutes the first full volume dedicated to an academic analysis of theatrically released spinoff films derived from British radio and television sitcoms Regularly maligned as the nadir of British film production and marginalised as a last resort for the financially bereft industry during the 1970s this study demonstrates that the sitcom spinoff film has instead been a persistent and important presence in British cinema from the 1940s to the present day and includes occasional works with distinct artistic merit Alongside an investigation of the economic imperative underpinning these productions i e the exploitation of proven product with a ready made audience it is argued that with a longevity stretching from Arthur Askey and his wartime Band Waggon 1940 to the crew of Kurupt FM and their recent People Just Do Nothing Big in Japan 2021 the British sitcom spinoff can be interpreted as following a full generic life cycle Starting with the formative stage where works from Hi Gang 1941 to I Only Arsked 1958 establish the genre s characteristics the spinoff genre moves to its classic stage where secure for form and content it enjoys considerable popular success with films like Till Death Us Do Part 1969 On the Buses 1971 The Likely Lads 1976 and Rising Damp 1980 the genre s revival since the late 1990s reveals a more parodic final stage with films like The League of Gentlemen s Apocalypse 2005 adopting a consciously self reflective mode It is also posited that the sitcom spinoff film is a viable source for social history with the often stereotypical re presentations of characters and events an often blatant ideological metonym for the concerns of wider British society notably in issues of class race gender and sexuality

Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies Warren Buckland,2009-06-03 Film theory no longer gets top billing or plays a starring role in film studies today as critics proclaim that theory is dead and we are living in a post theory moment While theory may be out of the limelight it remains an essential key to understanding the full complexity of cinema one that should not be so easily discounted or discarded In this volume contributors explore recent popular movies through the lens of film theory beginning with industrial economic analysis before moving into a predominately aesthetic and interpretive framework The Hollywood films discussed cover a wide range from 300 to Fifty First Dates from Brokeback Mountain to Lord of the Rings from Spider Man 3 to Fahrenheit 9 11 from Saw to Raiders of the Lost Ark and much more Individual essays consider such topics as the rules that govern new blockbuster franchises the posthumanist realism of digital cinema video game adaptations increasingly restricted stylistic norms the spatial stories of social networks like YouTube the mainstreaming of queer culture and the cognitive paradox behind enjoyable viewing of traumatic events onscreen With its cast of international film scholars Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies demonstrates the remarkable contributions theory can offer to film studies and moviegoers alike
