Strands Of Desire:

Toward a Micro-Political Theology Yin-An Chen, 2022-09-14 Has liberation theology reached a dead end Has the time come to propose another strategy of political resistance one that considers and takes account of the complexity of power relationships in daily life How can we explore the deeper meaning of freedom and liberation This book begins with a reflection on the failure of social movements and revolutions and a review of the methodologies of liberation theologies Offering a brand new micro political theology it attempts to demonstrate how Michel Foucault can help us recognize the limitations of our standard definitions of liberation Continuing Foucault's critical engagement with desire sexuality and the body this book opens a fresh dialogue between Althaus Reid's indecent theology Latin American liberation theology and radical orthodoxy leading to an exploration of how that dialogue can remind us that spirituality and the transformative practice of the self can themselves be fully political It also urges prayer as both the radical root of political resistance and its action

Mind and Supermind Keith Frankish, 2007-07-26 Mind and Supermind offers an alternative perspective on the nature of belief and the structure of the human mind Keith Frankish argues that the folk psychological term belief refers to two distinct types of mental state which have different properties and support different kinds of mental explanation Building on this claim he develops a picture of the human mind as a two level structure consisting of a basic mind and a supermind and shows how the resulting account sheds light on a number of puzzling phenomena and helps to vindicate folk psychology Topics discussed include the function of conscious thought the cognitive role of natural language the relation between partial and flat out belief the possibility of active belief formation and the nature of akrasia self deception and first person authority This book will be valuable for philosophers psychologists and cognitive scientists

Crossover Queries Edith Wyschogrod, 2006 Drawing together pieces from over twenty years that reflect her penetrating thought Crossover Queries presents for the first time in a single volume the astonishing range of a major philosopher To explore the risks ambiguities and unstable conceptual situations of contemporary thought it takes modes of negation especially the negation intrinsic to the ethical as its central thread Ranging from twentieth century European philosophy to traditional Jewish thought from analyses of dance music and novels to the question of the name of God from the phenomenology of the body to recent biological research its profoundly learned and humanely engaged discussions remain always mindful that even as philosophy crosses over into new spaces of thought the philosopher remains standing within and responsible a historical legacy one conditioned by the negative

Possibilities David Graeber, 2007 An anthropologist investigates the revolution of everyday life

Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office, 1909

Dust Bound for Heaven Reinhard Hütter, 2012-10 In Dust Bound for Heaven Reinhard Hütter shows how Thomas Aquinas's view of the human being as dust bound for heaven weaves together elements of two questions without fusion or reduction Does humanity still have an insatiable thirst for God that sends each person on an irrepressible religious quest that only the vision of God can quench Or must the human being living after the fall become a new creation in order to be readied for heaven Htter also applies Thomas s anthropology to a host of pressing contemporary concerns including the modern crisis of faith and reason political theology the relationship between divine grace and human freedom and many more The concluding chapter explores the Christological center of Thomas s theology The Instinctive Screenplay Sam North,2017-09-16 What is it that makes humans engage with a dramatic narrative Is it linked to our primitive selves contained within our instinctive experience This innovative text argues that understanding how and why our human instincts are brought into play as we watch screen drama is the key to writing it Analysing four powerful instincts willpower logic morality and emotion Sam North explores how they determine our level of involvement in their drama and how screenwriters can use them to develop their craft Including a variety of both well known and less famous examples from The Shawshank Redemption to Samira Makhmalbaf s The Apple this book offers a fresh new approach to thinking about discussing and writing screenplays AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ISLAMIC SOCIAL SCIENCES 27:3 Zakyi Ibrahim,2010-06-10 AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Issue 34 3 includes several articles book reviews as well as symposium reports from domestic and international conferences Past issues of AJISS are available to the subscribers of Periodical Archives on ProQuest com and EBSCO The Strand Magazine ,1899 Strand of Jewels Khetsun Sangpo Rinpoche,2016-02-02 The teachings here are the distillation of a lifetime s commitment to Dzogchen realization and practice Khetsun Sangpo offers to readers with varying levels of experience the peak of Dzogchen wisdom largely from hermit masters unknown in the West Mindfulness-based Emotion Focused Counselling Padmasiri de Silva,2021-01-07 This book examines the use of Buddhist ideas particularly mindfulness to manage a broad spectrum of emotions and to address social and economic issues impacting the world such as climate change Beginning with a brief history of emotion studies it highlights how recent developments in neuroscience and cognitive science have paved the way for exploring the utility of Buddhist concepts in addressing various psychological and social problems in the world It profiles a wide range of emotions from Western and Buddhist perspectives including anger sadness depression pride and compassion and analyses the integration of Buddhist ideas into modern clinical practice Finally the author demonstrates the utility of mindfulness in the regulation of emotions in various settings including psychiatric clinics schools and businesses Anchored in the Buddhist tradition this book this book provides a unique resource for students and scholars of counselling psychotherapy clinical psychology and philosophy Responsibility from the Margins David Shoemaker,2015-04-23 David Shoemaker presents a new pluralistic theory of responsibility based on the idea of quality of will His approach is motivated by our ambivalence to real life cases of marginal

agency such as those caused by clinical depression dementia scrupulosity psychopathy autism intellectual disability and poor formative circumstances Our ambivalent responses suggest that such agents are responsible in some ways but not others Shoemaker develops a theory to account for our ambivalence via close examination of several categories of pan cultural emotional responsibility responses sentiments and their appropriateness conditions The result is three distinct types of responsibility each with its own set of required capacities attributability answerability and accountability Attributability is about the having and expressing of various traits of character and it is the target of a range of aretaic sentiments and emotional practices organized around disdain and admiration Answerability is about one s capacity to govern one s actions and attitudes by one s evaluative judgments about the worth of various practical reasons and it is the target of a range of sentiments and emotional practices organized around regret and pride Accountability is about one s ability to regard others both evaluatively and emotionally and it is the target of a range of sentiments and emotional practices organized around anger and gratitude In Part One of the book this tripartite theory is developed and defended In Part Two of the book the tripartite theory s predictions about specific marginal cases are tested once certain empirical details about the nature of those agents have been filled in and discussed Strand Magazine ,1900 American Archaeology and Ethnology

,1907 Basket Designs of the Indians of Northwestern California Alfred Louis Kroeber,1905 Basket Designs of the Indians of Northwestern California by Alfred Louis Kroeber first published in 1905 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it Science, Time and Space in the Late Nineteenth-century Periodical Press James Mussell,2007

James Mussell engages with nineteenth century scientific writing and recent theoretical discussion to propose a new methodology that situates the periodical press in space and time Well known writers like H G Wells and Arthur Conan Doyle are discovered in new contexts while other authors publishers editors and scientists are discussed in ways that inform current debates about the status of digital publication and the preservation of archival material in electronic forms

Affective Transformations Bernd Bösel,Serjoscha Wiemer,2020-11-19 Has the Affective Turn itself turned sour Two seemingly contradictory developments serve as starting points for this volume First technologies from affective computing to social robotics focus on the recognition and modulation of human affectivity Affect gets measured calculated controlled Second we witness a deeply concerning rise in hate speech cybermobbing and incitement to violence via social media Affect gets mobilized fomented unleashed Politics has become affective to such an extent that we need to rethink our regimes of affect organization Media and Affect Studies now have to prove that they can cope with the return of the affective real

“this need to dance / this need to kneel” Michael P. Murphy, Melissa Bradshaw, 2019-09-17 That Denise Levertov 1923-97 was one of the most pioneering and skilled poets of her generation is beyond dispute Her masterly use of language innovative experimentations with organic form and the political acuity disclosed by her activist poetry are well marked by critical communities But it is also quite clear that the poems Levertov wrote in the last twenty years of her life with their more explicit focus on theological themes and subjects are among the best poems written on religious experience of any century let alone the twentieth The collection of essays gathered here shed vital light on this neglected aspect of Levertov studies so as to expand and enrich the scope of critical engagement In a mixture of theoretical considerations and close readings these essays provide valuable reflections about the complex relationship between poetry and belief and offer philosophically robust insights into different styles of poetic imagination The abiding hope is to broaden the terrain for discussions in twenty first century theology literary theory poetics and aesthetics honoring immanence exploring transcendence and dwelling with integrity within the spaces between      House Documents USA House of Representatives, 1847      The Strand Magazine George Newnes, Herbert Greenhough Smith, 1892
