Sentha Summers was just looking for love real love the kind found in fairy tales A casual fling was easy but she longed for something deeper something magical When she stumbled upon an enchanted love charm on Etsy she thought she had found the answer What started as an innocent experiment in spellcasting quickly became an obsession With each spell each charm and each whispered incantation Sentha's power grew Men flocked to her enthralled by something beyond their understanding But love was never meant to be forced and the magic she wielded came at a cost one she never saw coming Dark whispers invaded her dreams Shadows slithered in the corners of her room The men she had drawn in with her spells began to act strangely some disappeared others became aggressive and one even turned up dead Desperate she scoured the internet for answers seeking stronger spells to fix what she had broken But the more she tried to control her fate the further she spiraled into darkness Then she met Elias a man who knew exactly what she had done and the dangers she now faced He was her only hope of escape But breaking a deal with the forces she had called upon wasn't going to be easy The demon she had unknowingly invited into her life would not let her go without a fight Now Sentha must battle for her soul facing horrors beyond her imagination The magic that once promised her love now threatens to consume her entirely And if she doesn't act fast she may never be free
