Strangers In The City:

Strangers to the City Michael Casey, 2013-09-01 Michael Casey a monk and scholar who has been publishing his wise teachings on the Rule of St Benedict for decades turns to the particular Benedictine values that he considers most urgent for Christians to incorporate into their lives today Eloquent and incisive Casey invites readers to accept that gospel living seen in the light of the Rule involves accepting the challenge of being different from the secular culture around us He encourages readers to set clear goals and objectives to be honest about the practical ways in which priorities may have to change to meet these goals and to have the courage to implement these changes both daily and for the future Casey presents thoughtful reflections on the beliefs and values of asceticism silence leisure reading chastity and poverty putting these traditional Benedictine values into the context of modern life and the spiritual aspirations of people today Strangers to the City is a book for all who are interested in learning more about the dynamics of spiritual growth from the monastic experience The City on Screen: Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul Sertaç Timur Demir, 2024-01-02 The City on Screen: Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul attempts to analyze how Istanbul is captured through the projector in other words the ontological relationship between city and film and how it is elaborated within the context of Istanbul and the sense of strangerhood This book shifts the axis of Istanbul typically known as a touristic city to its underlying details through the strangers in the modern city Five different films set in this region are analyzed in the text that help to reveal and clarify the socio urban life of modern Istanbul The characters and stories in these films tell how Istanbul has socially and architecturally become a city of strangers The films analyzed include A Touch of Spice 2004 Men on the Bridge 2009 A Run for Money 1999 Distant 2002 and 10 to 11 2009 The theoretical framework of this book is based on the works of Georg Simmel Zygmunt Bauman and Richard Sennett These three thinkers have all attempted to look for answers to the sociological question of strangerhood in urban living This book accomplishes this connection by discussing the similarities and differences between each of their theories regarding the city cinema and strangerhood The Stranger's Guide to the City of New-York ... Edmund March Blunt, 1818

Migrants and Strangers in an African City Bruce Whitehouse, 2012-03-14 In cities throughout Africa local inhabitants live alongside large populations of strangers Bruce Whitehouse explores the condition of strangerhood for residents who have come from the West African Sahel to settle in Brazzaville Congo Whitehouse considers how these migrants live simultaneously inside and outside of Congolese society as merchants as Muslims in a predominantly non Muslim society and as parents seeking to instill in their children the customs of their communities of origin Migrants and Strangers in an African City challenges Pan Africanist ideas of transnationalism and diaspora in today's globalized world Manual of the Corporation of the City of New York New York (N.Y.). Common Council, 1858 The Free City Bouck White, 1919

The Postcolonial City and its Subjects Rashmi Varma, 2011-08-05 This book considers twentieth and twenty first century literary and cultural formations of the postcolonial city and the constitution of new subjects within it Varma offers a reading of both historical and contemporary debates on urbanism through the filter of postcolonial fictions and the cultural fields surrounding and containing them In particular she presents a representational history of London Nairobi and Bombay in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and engages three key theoretical frameworks the city within postcolonial theory and culture its troubled salience in the construction of postcolonial public spheres and identities from local rural ethnic tribal and regional to national cosmopolitan and transnational subjects and spaces postcolonial fictions as constituting a new world literary space and as a site of the articulation of contending narratives of urban space global culture and postcolonial development and postcolonial feminist citizenship as a universal political project challenging current neo liberal and post neo liberal contractions and eviscerations of public spaces and rights

Frug,2001-02-20 American metropolitan areas today are divided into neighborhoods of privilege and poverty often along lines of ethnicity and race City residents traveling through these neighborhoods move from feeling at home to feeling like tourists to feeling so out of place they fear for their security As Gerald Frug shows this divided and inhospitable urban landscape is not simply the result of individual choices about where to live or start a business It is the product of government policies and in particular the policies embedded in legal rules A Harvard law professor and leading expert on urban affairs Frug presents the first ever analysis of how legal rules shape modern cities and outlines a set of alternatives to bring down the walls that now keep city dwellers apart Frug begins by describing how American law treats cities as subdivisions of states and shows how this arrangement has encouraged the separation of metropolitan residents into different sometimes hostile groups He explains in clear accessible language the divisive impact of rules about zoning redevelopment land use and the organization of such city services as education and policing He pays special attention to the underlying role of anxiety about strangers the widespread desire for good schools and the pervasive fear of crime Ultimately Frug calls for replacing the current legal definition of cities with an alternative based on what he calls community building an alternative that gives cities within the same metropolitan region incentives to forge closer links with each other An incisive study of the legal roots of today s urban problems City Making is also an optimistic and compelling blueprint for enabling American cities once again to embrace their historic role of helping people reach an accommodation with those who live in the same geographic area no matter how dissimilar they are      Clubbing Ben Malbon,2002-03-11 Clubbing explores the cultures and spaces of clubbing Divided into three sections Beginnings The Night Out and Reflections Clubbing includes first hand accounts of clubbing experiences framing these accounts within the relevant research and a review of clubbing in late 1990s Britain Malbon particularly focuses on the codes of social interaction among clubbers issues of gender and sexuality the effects of music the role of ecstasy clubbing as a playful act and personal interpretations of clubbing experiences      The City of the Lost, and Other Short Allegorical Sermons.
