Honky Tonk Angel Ellis Nassour, 2008-06 Earthy, sexy and vivacious, the life of beloved country singer Patsy Cline who soared from obscurity to international fame to tragic death in just thirty short years is explored in colorful and poignant detail. An innovator and even a hell-raiser, Cline broke all the boys club barriers of Nashville's music business in the 1950s and brought a new Nashville sound to the nation with her pop hits and torch ballads like Walking After Midnight, I Fall to Pieces and Crazy. She is the subject of a major Hollywood movie and countless articles, and her albums are still selling 45 years after her death. Ellis Nassour was the very first to write about Cline and did so with the cooperation of the stars who knew and loved her, including Jimmy Dean, Jan Howard, Brenda Lee, Loretta Lynn, Roger Miller, Dottie West and Faron Young. He was the only writer to interview Cline's mother and husbands. This updated edition features not only a complete discography and a host of never before published photographs but includes an afterword that details controversial claims about her birth, the battle between Cline's siblings for her possessions, the amazing influence Cline had on a new generation of singers and, in Cline's own words from letters to a devoted friend, her excitement as her career soared to new heights and her marriage descended to new depths.
