International Dictionary of University Histories Mary Elizabeth Devine, Carol Summerfield, 2013-12-02 Modeled on Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places the International Dictionary of University Histories provides basic information on 200 institutions location description sources of further information followed by an extensive 3000 to 5000 word essay on each university's history Entries on each university conclude with a Further Reading list and most entries are illustrated Coverage is world wide and entries range from the great medieval institutions Oxford Heidelberg the Sorbonne to the great historic universities of the United States to the newer universities of Australia and South Africa to the lesser known universities of India China and Japan More than 200 writers researchers and archival departments of the universities themselves have contributed to the Dictionary Entries include those universities with the most fascinating histories and those that have played important roles in the development of their own countries and in the furtherance of world scholarship Asian Review, 1924 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association Relic, Icon or Hoax? Harry E Gove, 2024-11-01 Interest in the Turin Shroud continues to the present day even though it was finally carbon dated in 1988 and shown not to be of an age consistent with Christ's burial Scientifically the age of the shroud cloth is of little consequence but to the general public it is of considerable significance The author Harry E Gove is a co inventor of accelerator mass spectrometry and was responsible for its use in establishing whether the Turin Shroud could have been Christ's burial cloth Relic Icon or Hoax Carbon Dating the Turin Shroud presents an eyewitness account of the events that culminated in the final determination of the age of the linen cloth of the Turin Shroud and some of the subsequent reactions to the results The book discusses the application of accelerator mass spectrometry to the carbon dating of the Turin Shroud using samples only a few square centimeters in area and weighing only a few tens of milligrams

Economic Conditions in France Great Britain. Dept. of Overseas Trade, 1925 Economic Conditions in France, 1923 Funding Religious Heritage Anne Fornerod, 2016-03-09 This collection brings together a group of highly respected law and religion scholars to explore the funding of religious heritage in the context of state support for religions The importance of this state support is that on the one hand it illustrates the potential tensions between secular and religious values whilst on the other it constitutes a relevant tool for investigating the question of the legitimacy of such financial support The funding logically varies according to the national system of state religion relationships and this is reflected in the range of countries studied including Belgium Bulgaria Denmark France Italy The Netherlands Spain Turkey and the United Kingdom The book provides clarity in the assignment of funds to religious heritage as well as seeking to define the limit of what relates to the exercise of worship and what belongs to cultural policy It is clear that the main challenge for the future lies not only in managing the dual purpose of religious monuments but also in re using these buildings which have lost their original purpose This collection will appeal to those interested in cultural heritage management as well as law and religion

King of the World Philip Mansel,2019-07-11 Winner of the Franco British Society Book Prize 2019 The ultimate biography of the Sun King Simon Sebag Montefiore Louis XIV dominated his age He extended France s frontiers into Netherlands and Germany and established colonies overseas The stupendous palace he built at Versailles became the envy of monarchs all over Europe In his palaces Louis encouraged dancing hunting music and gambling He loved conversation especially with women the power of women in Louis s life and reign is a particular theme of this book Louis was obsessed by the details of government but the cost of building palaces and waging continuous wars devastated the country s finances and helped set it on the path to revolution Nevertheless by his death he had helped make his grandson king of Spain where his descendants still reign and France had taken essentially the shape it has today King of the World is the most comprehensive and up to date biography of this hypnotic flawed figure in English It draws on all the latest research to paint a convincing and compelling portrait of a man who three hundred years after his death still epitomises the idea of le grand monarque John Knox Jane Dawson,2015-04-23 Jane Dawson has written the definitive life of John Knox a leader of the Protestant Reformation in sixteenth century Scotland Based in large part on previously unavailable sources including the recently discovered papers of Knox s close friend and colleague Christopher Goodman Dawson s biography challenges the traditionally held stereotype of this founder of the Presbyterian denomination as a strident and misogynist religious reformer whose influence rarely extended beyond Scotland She maintains instead that John Knox relied heavily on the support of his godly sisters and conferred as well as argued with Mary Queen of Scots He was a proud member of the European community of Reformed Churches and deeply involved in the religious Reformations within England Ireland France Switzerland and the Holy Roman Empire Casting a surprising new light on the public and private personas of a highly complex difficult and hugely compelling individual Dawson s fascinating study offers a vivid fully rounded portrait of this renowned Scottish preacher and prophet who had a seismic impact on religion and society The National Judicial Treatment of the ECHR and EU Laws

Giuseppe Martinico,Oreste Pollicino,2010 Have national judges started treating the provisions of the European Convention on Human Rights the same way they treat the EC law s norms In order to answer this question the editors of this book included scholars from the countries that are members both of the EU and the Council of Europe The book collects the proceeding of an international conference held January 16 17 2010 at the Scuola Superiore Sant Anna of Pisa Reflexions upon the Conditions of Peace offer'd by France, and the Means to be employed for the procuring of better France,1694
