TRANSATLANTIC POLICY QUARTERLY - VOL. 21 - NO. 2 - SUMMER 2022 Carmen Romero, E. Fuat Keyman, Ahmet Evin, John Rennie Short, James Sperling, Dina R. Spechler, Martin C. Spechler, Serdar Ş. Güner, Matteo Gerlini, Diana Morais, Samantha Turner, Katharine A. M. Wright, Ricardo Borges de Castro, Rita Barbosa Lobo, Daniel S. Hamilton, Lorenzo Somigli, Spenser A. Warren, 2022-09-01 In response to the shifting landscape of international politics the most current TPQ issue focuses on NATO's Changing Priorities We present thirteen insightful essays for our Summer 2022 edition from prominent figures in academia, journalism and nongovernmental organizations Ten of these articles address the changing priorities of NATO in more general terms while three others take this phenomenon in light of the effects of the most recent Russian invasion of Ukraine Several significant new difficulties for the global order emerged in the wake of the Russian invasion NATO has proposed a new Strategic Concept which was emphasized at its most recent Summit in Madrid in response to these fresh concerns TPQ explores not just the potential of this recent significant document but also examines the more considerable consequences of it on the global stage Transatlantic Policy Quarterly's publication interests have always been significantly inspired by the Alliance's agenda We hope that by concentrating on NATO's Changing Priorities in our Summer 2022 issue we will be able to better inform our readers about the shifting framework of international relations Carmen Romero provides an exciting overview of the recent Strategic Concept outlined by NATO in its Madrid Summit She correctly draws attention to the novelty of this novel idea in light of the circumstances surrounding its revelation Additionally she thinks that the important choices made at the Summit will guarantee that NATO keeps adapting and protecting its members in an increasingly dangerous and competitive world An overview of these choices is given in this article within the framework of the Alliance s increasingly erratic security environment E Fuat Keyman highlights that the NATO summit in Madrid was significant and essential but it wasn t enough To support his claim he thoroughly examines NATO s new strategic concept its crucial significance its transformational impact and the six obstacles it confronts As NATO today finds itself in a period of strategic rivalry in his opinion the organization s most recent Strategic Concept reflects a very different threat environment It acknowledges for the first time that the Euro Atlantic region is not at peace but instead that strategic rivalry and general instability threaten regional security Ahmet O Evin offers a careful method that considers contextual circumstances According to him NATO now looks to be taking on the role of a champion for both the liberal order and the shared principles of the transatlantic Alliance Moreover he also focuses on the longer term effects of the shifting dynamics in international events on ordinary individuals by saying that unhappiness brought on by the stagnant economy the growing cost of living and perhaps energy shortages may be expected to expand the ranks of those opposed to the war and its effects on the quality of life in Europe We encourage you to find out more about the elements that make up NATO s Changing Priorities Planning U.S. General Purpose Forces United States. Congressional Budget Office, Dov S. Zakheim, 1976

Europe and Israel Ilan Greilsammer, Joseph Weiler, 2011-08-30 No detailed description available for Europe and Israel

Intractable Dilemmas in the Energy-Rich Eastern Mediterranean Aris Petasis, 2016-02-08 The Eastern Mediterranean is once again in turmoil in addition to proxy wars in Syria and Iraq and the occupation of Cyprus there is no president or functioning government in Lebanon which is also in the midst of an open conflict with Israel in the south Furthermore Turkey is threatening its neighbours Israel is faced with daily security issues the Sinai Peninsula is no longer safe the refugee problem is adding to the region s woes and the rule of international law is being increasingly violated The arrival in the region of a new powerful world player Russia and of an indomitable regional player Iran has further upset the balance in the Eastern Mediterranean The economies of the region are also confronted with serious problems Greece and Cyprus are under Troika supervision even if Cyprus s program is in theory ending soon The Egyptian economy is failing to meet its potential with its per capita GDP stuck at the bottom of the international rung Even the Turkish economy is showing signs of fatigue with the value of the Turkish lira against the dollar taking a nosedive and the Russian embargo beginning to bite Israel is doing better than its neighbours but continues to carry a heavy defence burden However the region has a habit of bouncing back and newly discovered energy reserves are now giving the Eastern Mediterranean hope If properly handled energy can help unite the countries in the region and turn the Eastern Mediterranean into a peaceful and harmonious network There are however two main obstacles that must be overcome namely the Palestinian problem and the occupation by Turkey of 37% of Cyprus territory Syria would also need to take the path to peace free of terrorism and violence Working together on energy resources would help countries of the Eastern Mediterranean see their neighbours as natural allies rather than as antagonists and proxies of some foreign power This book proposes the creation of a High Energy Authority that would enable all countries in the region to exploit their energy reserves together This concept would create economic advantage and reduce conflict and hegemonic dependence First Concurrent Resolution on the Budget, Fiscal Year 1978 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Budget,1977

The Development of the Soviet Armed Forces, 1917-1977 Kenneth R. Whiting,1978 Mavi Vatan - Blue Homeland Doctrine Derya Yalimcan,2025-07-02 This Book examines the legal foundations and geopolitical implications of Turkey's Blue Homeland doctrine Mavi Vatan from a Turkish perspective addressing a critical gap in the predominantly Western centric academic discourse which disproportionately adopts the Greek viewpoint Turkey asserts maritime sovereignty in the Aegean Sea the Eastern Mediterranean and the Black Sea invoking historical claims international legal frameworks and regional disputes This study evaluates Turkey's legal position in opposition to prevailing interpretations of international maritime law with particular emphasis on the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS customary international law and relevant treaty obligations Through a comparative legal analysis of conflicting territorial claims it defends the doctrinal legitimacy of Turkey's maritime claims while critically challenging the prevailing academic orthodoxy which privileges Greek legal arguments to the detriment of an objective and balanced legal assessment The Turkish-American Relationship Between 1947 and 2003 Nasuh Uslu,2003 Turkish American Relationship Between 1947 2003 The History of a Distinctive Alliance Turkish-Greek Relations Mustafa Aydin,Kostas Ifantis,2004-06 The causes of the current Greek Turkish rapprochement progress are explored in this book in relation both to the international environment which is increasingly conducive to this progress and significant domestic changes Strategic Review ,1974 dedicated to the advancement and understanding of those principles and practices military and political which serve the vital security interests of the United States Nuclear Weapons and NATO United States. Department of the Army,1975 U.S. Projection Forces United States. Congressional Budget Office,1978 RUSI and Brassey's Defence Yearbook Royal United Services Institute for Defence Studies,1974 The United States and Greek-Turkish Relations Spyros Katsoulas,2021-12-30 This book examines the role of the United States in Greek Turkish relations and fills an important gap in alliance theory regarding the guardian's dilemma The strategy of a great power involves not only tackling threats from enemies but also dealing with problems that arise between allies Every time Greece and Turkey threatened to go to war against each other the United States had to effectively restrain its two strategic allies without straining relations with either one of them This book explores how the United States responded to the guardian's dilemma in six crises during the Cold War pursuing a policy of dual restraint to prevent an intra alliance conflict mitigate the consequences of each crisis and maintain effective control of the Rimland Bridge From a neoclassical realist standpoint the book examines how the United States responded to each Greek Turkish crisis for what reasons and with what results It will be of interest to scholars of foreign policy security studies geopolitics and international relations
