Take This Job And Love It:

Take this Job and Love it Diane Tracy,2004 Empowering Women in STEM Sanya Mathura,2024-03-01 Throughout the globe STEM careers exist However in some countries particular STEM careers have been male dominated while in other countries no gender biases exist as it relates to STEM careers One common trend which occurs throughout the world is that women who are working in these STEM related fields typically leave after about five years Contrarily it has also been uncovered that more women stay in these fields when we all work together Empowering Women in STEM Working Together to Inspire the Future provides a platform to share the stories of those who have been in STEM careers but have pivoted to other areas by utilizing the STEM skills they learned It bridges the gap between those who are thinking about entering or leaving STEM careers along with those who want to encourage others into STEM careers This book showcases how everyone s journey is different some may have unexpected twists and turns while others appear to conform to the normal rules outlined by society By offering a front row seat on a journey that takes many different paths this book provides advice that can lead to a STEM career with or without having a STEM background The different roads taken are highlighted to show how everyone s path is unique and how that is okay With the upcoming generation constantly looking for ways to fit in or be able to identify with role models to help them chart their way forward this book ensures that they have not just one but a variety of role models and success stories to relate to It also offers some key advice which can be applied to any field they choose In addition to having women and men from across the globe share their stories about various fields this book also is written for professionals who may be considering a switch of career or deciding to leave STEM and for university students who are trying to figure out their career choices and paths to take to gain more insight into possible new career goals in STEM
