Take Ten Contemporary British Film Directors:

Take Ten Jonathan Hacker, David Price, 1992 When examining the variety of British directors included here the reader will see just how misleading the term British film can be The book places ten contemporary British directors side by side But whilst the reader is able to trace certain common themes comparisons between the characters are actually characterized by a startling degree of diversity of style and opinion British Film Directors Robert Shail, 2007 This concise authoritative volume analyses critically the work of 100 British directors from the innovators of the silent period to contemporary auteurs

Derek Jarman: The Authorised Biography Tony Peake, 2025-03-20 Tony Peake enjoyed unprecedented access to the visionary artist's archives in order to bring the extraordinary life of Derek Jarman to the page This authorised and unique biography covers Jarman's story from the bleakness of post war Britain and his RAF childhood to student life at The Slade and his work as a designer painter and filmmaker It tells how energetic home filmmaking with dazzling friends led to distinctive feature films including Sebastiane The Tempest and Caravaggio There were collaborations with the likes of Sir John Gielgud and Tilda Swinton and Jarman was also at the forefront of popular culture producing distinctive music videos for Pet Shop Boys and The Smiths Alongside his art and a significant body of writing Jarman created a singular garden in the shingle surrounding Prospect Cottage at Dungeness in Kent which has become a site of memorial celebration and pilgrimage He became known as an impassioned and provocative spokesperson not only for gay men but for anyone oppressed by bigotry Derek Jarman died of AIDS related causes in February 1994 and Peake describes his inimitable courage and grace in the face of painful death and the legacies Jarman left behind With new contributions from Olivia Laing and Jon Savage

The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music Keith Potter, Kyle Gann, 2016-03-23 In recent years the music of minimalist composers such as La Monte Young Terry Riley Steve Reich and Philip Glass has increasingly become the subject of important musicological reflection research and debate Scholars have also been turning their attention to the work of lesser known contemporaries such as Phill Niblock and Eliane Radigue or to second and third generation minimalists such as John Adams Louis Andriessen Michael Nyman and William Duckworth whose range of styles may undermine any sense of shared aesthetic approach but whose output is still to a large extent informed by the innovative work of their minimalist predecessors Attempts have also been made by a number of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo Pärt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism's role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject

Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons, 2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman. Although he is well known for his avant garde filmmaking his garden and his AIDS activism he is also the author of over a dozen books many of which are autobiographical. Much of Jarman's exploration of post war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV AIDS can be found in his books such as the lyrical AIDS diaries Modern Nature and Smiling in Slow Motion. This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing. Spanning his career Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self reflexive response to the HIV AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards. Luminous presence is of great interest to students scholars and readers of queer histories in literature art and film. Ken Loach John

Hill, 2019-07-25 John Hill's definitive study looks at the career and work of British director Ken Loach. From his early television work Cathy Come Home through to landmark films Kes and examinations of British society Looking For Eric this landmark study reveals Loach as one of the great European directors. Don't Look Now Mark Sanderson, 2019-07-25 Don't Look Now released in 1973 confirmed director Nicolas Roeg as one of the most stylish and innovative British directors of the postwar period. Adapted from a short story by Daphne du Maurier it is both a complex study of how people come to terms with grief and a chilling tale of murder set among the canals and churches of Venice. Featuring telling performances by Julie Christie and Donald Sutherland as the couple whose daughter has tragically died Don't Look Now depicts the way in which the macabre and the everyday are intertwined. In his lucid subtle account Mark Sanderson describes the collaboration between director and actors that sustained the film's emotional richness. He returns to du Maurier's original text and to the traditions of Gothic writing that underpin Don't Look Now's combination of horror melodrama and black comedy. Sanderson examines the film's intricate visual style uncovering the way in which particular motifs are used to amplify its depiction of two terrible deaths. He finds compensation for the film's grimly fatalistic view of life in its celebration of sexual relationships and the power of recollection. The book includes an exclusive and in depth interview with Roeg as well as rare and unpublished comments from Christie. In his foreword to this special edition published to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the BFI Film Classics series Jason Wood places Don't Look Now in the context of Roeg's film making career and draws upon Roeg's revealing insights into the film's production. Peter Greenaway David Pascoe, 1997-11 Peter Greenaway is one of the most distinctive and provocative personalities to emerge in European cinema in the last two decades. This extensively illustrated critical study examines Greenaway's vision from a number of perspectives. Directors in British and Irish

Cinema Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005. Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director's career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography. It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland.

Complicating Articulation in Art Cinema Benedict Morrison, 2021 What is film criticism for This book aims to answer this question It argues that art cinema's political effect is the result of indeterminacy and not character centric meaning
