Not a Gentleman's War Ron Milam, 2009-10-15 Wars are not fought by politicians and generals they are fought by soldiers Written by a combat veteran of the Vietnam War Not a Gentleman's War is about such soldiers a gritty against the grain defense of the much maligned junior officer Conventional wisdom holds that the junior officer in Vietnam was a no talent poorly trained unmotivated soldier typified by Lt William Calley of My Lai infamy Drawing on oral histories after action reports diaries letters and other archival sources Ron Milam debunks this view demonstrating that most of the lieutenants who served in combat performed their duties well and effectively serving with great skill dedication and commitment to the men they led Milam s narrative provides a vivid on the ground portrait of what the platoon leader faced training his men keeping racial tensions at bay and preventing alcohol and drug abuse all in a war without fronts Yet despite these obstacles junior officers performed admirably as documented by field reports and evaluations of their superior officers More than 5 000 junior officers died in Vietnam all of them had volunteered to lead men in battle Based on meticulous and wide ranging research this book provides a much needed serious treatment of these men the only such study in print shedding new light on the longest war in American history Late Thoughts on an Old War Philip D. Beidler, 2010-01-25 Philip D Beidler who served as an armored cavalry platoon leader in Vietnam sees less and less of the hard won perspective of the common soldier in what America has made of that war Each passing year he says dulls our sense of immediacy about Vietnam's costs opening wider the temptation to make it something more necessary neatly contained and justifiable than it should ever become Here Beidler draws on deeply personal memories to reflect on the war's lingering aftereffects and the shallow evasive ways we deal with them Beidler brings back the war he knew in chapters on its vocabulary music literature and film His catalog of soldier slang reveals how finely a tour of Vietnam could hone one's sense of absurdity His survey of the war's pop hits looks for meaning in the soundtrack many veterans still hear in their heads Beidler also explains how Viet Pulp literature about snipers tunnel rats and other hard core types has pushed aside masterpieces like Duong Thu Huong's Novel without a Name Likewise we learn why the movie The Deer Hunter doesn't get it about Vietnam but why Platoon and We Were Soldiers sometimes nearly do As Beidler takes measure of his own wartime politics and morals he ponders the divergent careers of such figures as William Calley the army lieutenant whose name is synonymous with the civilian massacre at My Lai and an old friend poet John Balaban a conscientious objector who performed alternative duty in Vietnam as a schoolteacher and hospital worker Beidler also looks at Vietnam alongside other conflicts including the war on international terrorism He once hoped he says that Vietnam had fractured our sense of providential destiny and geopolitical invincibility but now realizes with dismay that those myths are still with us Americans have always wanted their apocalypses writes Beidler and they have always wanted them now God in the Foxhole Charles W. Sasser, 2008-11-11 From veteran military writer Charles Sasser comes a collection of inspiring personal accounts of American soldiers whose faith has guided them through the hardships of war From the battlefields of the American Civil War through World Wars I and II from Korea and Vietnam to the front lines in Iraq and Afghanistan soldiers of all faiths have struggled for understanding and called on a higher power when faced with the realities of combat God in the Foxhole is a stunning collection of true personal accounts from generations of American soldiers whose faith in the words of author Charles W Sasser has been born reborn tested sustained verified or transformed under fire A renowned master of combat journalism and a former Green Beret Sasser has gathered an immensely moving collection of war stories like no other stories of spirituality conversion and miracles from the battlefield Be they Christian Jewish Muslim or atheist churched since childhood or touched by the divine for the first time here are the riveting experiences of army privates bomber pilots navy lieutenants marines prisoners of war medics nurses chaplains and others who under desperate circumstances and with every reason to fear for their lives found unknown strength courage and heroism through their remarkable faith These inspiring accounts transcend the explainable to become stunning portraits of survival and belief the angelic vision that brought inner peace to an exhausted helicopter door gunner in Vietnam the makeshift full immersion baptisms of eleven soldiers on Palm Sunday in Iraq 2004 two enemies a Nazi priest and an
