Taking Time Out Poems In Remembrance Of Madneb:

A New Library of Poetry and Song William Cullen Bryant, 1876 Remembering A.J. Andrew Johnston, 2022-01-20
What do I strive to contribute through my passion and visions I want to help make the world make a little more sense I want to do work as a critic and journalist that helps increase the audience of work that deserves exposure and explain why it deserves exposure And eventually I want to create artistic work of my own in the form of fiction or essays that in its own way does the same thing work that illustrates connections puts things in context and ultimately makes people realize that for all the insane bullshit that s going on out there and has been going on out there since time immemorial the world is really a pretty cool place AJ Irish Poetry of the 1930s Alan Gillis, 2005-06-23 The 1930s have never really been considered an epoch within Irish literature even though the Thirties form one of the most dominant and fascinating contexts in modern British literature This book argues that during this time Irish poets faced up to political pressures and aesthetic dilemmas which frequently overlapped with those associated with The Auden Generation In so doing it offers a provocative intercession into Irish history But more than this it offers powerful arguments about the way poetry in general is interpreted and understood In this way Gillis seeks to redefine our understanding of a frequently neglected period and to challenge received notions of both Irish literature and poetic modernism Irish Poetry of the 1930s gives detailed and vital readings of the major Irish poets of the decade including original and exciting analyses of Samuel Beckett Patrick Kavanagh Louis MacNeice and W B Yeats Culture/Contexture E. Valentine Daniel, Jeffrey M. Peck, 2023-11-15 The rapprochement of anthropology and literary studies begun nearly fifteen years ago by such pioneering scholars as Clifford Geertz Edward Said and James Clifford has led not only to the creation of the new scholarly domain of cultural studies but to the deepening and widening of both original fields Literary critics have learned to anthropologize their studies to ask questions about the construction of meanings under historical conditions and reflect on cultural situatedness Anthropologists have discovered narratives other than the master narratives of disciplinary social science that need to be drawn on to compose ethnographies Culture Contexture brings together for the first time literature and anthropology scholars to reflect on the antidisciplinary urge that has made the creative borrowing between their two fields both possible and necessary Critically expanding on such pathbreaking works as James Clifford and George Marcus s Writing Culture and Marcus and Michael M J Fischer s Anthropology as Cultural Critique contributors explore the fascination that draws the disciplines together and the fears that keep them apart Their topics demonstrate the rich intersection of anthropology and literary studies ranging from reading and race to writing and representation incest and violence and travel and time This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Latin last gasp Although thematically these essays run the gamut covering the monument and graveyard at Port Bou discussions of peasant poetry in Colombia a pact with the devil the peculiarities of a shaman's body transgression the disappearance of the sea New York City cops and the relationship between flowers and violence each shares Taussig's highly individual brand of storytelling one that depends on a deep appreciation of objects and things as a way to retrieve even deeper philosophical and anthropological meanings Whether he finds himself in Australia Colombia Manhattan or Spain in the midst of a book or a beach whether talking to friends or staring at a monument Taussig makes clear through these marvelous essays that materialist knowledge offers a crucial alternative to the increasingly abstract globalized homogenized and digitized world we inhabit Pursuing an adventure that is part ethnography part autobiography and part cultural criticism refracted through the object that is Walter Benjamin's grave Taussig with this collection provides his own literary memorial to the twentieth century's greatest cultural critic
