poet and author celebrated for his children's stories but perhaps best known for his fables and fairy tales meant for both adults and children. They were frequently written in a colloquial style using idioms and spoke language in a manner previously unseen in Danish literature. Though simple at first glance, Hans Andersen's Fairy Tales often convey sophisticated moral teachings in equal measure heart-breaking and heart-warming. These tales are further enhanced by the wonderful watercolour illustrations of A. Duncan Carse, a lesser-known though immensely accomplished artist and Golden Age illustrator. Andreas Duncan Carse (1876-1938) provided the illustrations for Lucy M. Scott's Dewdrops from Fairyland in 1912, but it was Carse's contributions to Hans Christian Andersen's Fairy Tales that arguably solidified his reputation as an accomplished illustrator of children's books. Pook Press celebrates the great Golden Age of Illustration in children's classics and fairy tales, a period of unparalleled excellence in book illustration. We publish rare and vintage Golden Age illustrated books in high quality colour editions so that the masterful artwork and story telling can continue to delight both young and old.
