Lost and Found offers a new understanding of modern Japanese regionalism by revealing the tense and volatile historical relationship between region and nation in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Aizu a star crossed region in present day Fukushima prefecture becomes a case study for how one locale was estranged from nationhood for its treasonous blunder in the Meiji Restoration yet eventually found a useful place within the imperial landscape Local mythmakers historians memoirists war veterans and others harmonized their rebel homeland with imperial Japan so as to affirm ironically the ultimate integrity of the Japanese polity What was once lost and then found again was not simply Aizu s sense of place and identity but the larger value of regionalism in a rapidly modernizing society In this study Hiraku Shimoda suggests that region which is often regarded as a hard natural place that impedes national unity is in fact a supple and contingent spatial category that can be made to reinforce nationalist sensibilities just as much as internal diversity

Lost and Found Emma L.E.Rees,2013-06-28 He is my miracle says Sarah Frost Mellor s protagonist of her lover Joe Found by accident in the least likely of places Sarah won the 2012 Cheshire Prize for Literature with her short story Udumbara in Lytham St Anne s and it s in this modest seaside town that Lost and Found begins Reading through the stories in this collection the reader will find many things surreal flotsam on a desolate beach a love letter mislaid for decades turns of phrase in a classroom relationships shaped in unusual settings But to find something means simultaneously to acknowledge the possibility of loss And loss figures largely in the anthology too from beloved relatives to despised spouses and from inconsequential objects to an individual s very sense of self life s losses are portrayed here in a variety of humorous dark and frequently surprising ways The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff s Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by the Bank of America Europe Card Services and is administered by the University of Chester The 2012 competition was for short stories and this collection contains 24 of the shortlisted entries including those of the eventual winner Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize>

Lost and Found Ed Stetzer,Richie Stanley,Jason Hayes,2009-02-01 Who are the young unchurched and how can they be reached with the good news of Jesus Christ In a poll result highlighted by CNN Headline News and USA Today nearly half of nonchurchgoers between the ages of twenty and twenty nine agreed with the statement Christians get on my nerves Now researchers behind the larger study present Lost and Found a blend of dynamic hard data and modern day parable that tells the real story of an unchurched generation that is actually quite spiritual and yet circumspect open to Jesus but not the church As such Lost and Found is written to the church using often surprising results from the copious research here to strike another nerve and break some long established assumptions about how to effectively engage the lost Leading missiologist Ed Stetzer and his associates first offer a detailed investigation of the four younger unchurched types With a better understanding of their unique experiences they next clarify the importance each type places on community depth of content social responsibility and making cross generational connections in relation to spiritual matters Most valuably Lost and Found finds the churches that have learned to reach unchurched young adults by paying close attention to those key markers vetted by the research Their exciting stories will make it clear how your church can bring searching souls from this culture to authentic faith in Christ Those who are lost can indeed be found Come take a closer look Treasures, Lost and Found Tasmanian lady,1872
