Tales From A Thousand And One Freudian Nights Paperback:

The Freudian Orient Frank F. Scherer, 2018-05-08 This study consists of a twofold interrelated enquiry the Orientalism of psychoanalysis and the psychoanalysis of Orientalism bringing into conversation Sigmund Freud and Edward Said and thereby the founding texts of psychoanalysis and postcolonial studies The immediate object of this exploration is the Freudian Orient and we thus begin by tracing the strong Orientalist presence in Freud's writings with examples from his early as well as later correspondence his diaries and his psychological works Following these examples of manifest Orientalism we will pursue more latent meanings by engaging two of Freud's favorite metaphors archaeology and travel Whereas the former soon uncovers a veritable porta Orientis conducting to an external Orient the latter reveals an internalised Orient traversed by Jewishness anti-Semitism and the Bible Unveiling the figure of Moses shows how Freud's strategy to resist anti-Semitic Orientalism by way of universalist reversal is only partially successful as he cannot extricate himself from the historical assumptions of that discourse

The Thousand and One Nights: Sources and Transformations in Literature, Art, and Science, 2020-04-28 The Thousand and One Nights does not fall into a scholarly canon or into the category of popular literature It takes its place within a middle literature that circulated widely in medieval times The Nights gradually entered world literature through the great novels of the day and through music cinema and other art forms Material inspired by the Nights has continued to emerge from many different countries periods disciplines and languages and the scope of the Nights has continued to widen making the collection a universal work from every point of view The essays in this volume scrutinize the expanse of sources for this monumental work of Arabic literature and follow the trajectory of the Nights texts the creative scholarly commentaries artistic encounters and relations to science Contributors Ibrahim Akel Rasoul Aliakbari Daniel Behar Aboubakr Chraïbi Anne E Duggan William Granara Rafika Hammoudi Dominique Jullien Abdelfattah Kilito Magdalena Kubarek Michael James Lundell Ulrich Marzolph Adam Mestyan Eyüp Zverev Marina Paino Daniela Potenza Arafat Abdur Razzaque Ahmed Saidy Johannes Thomann and Ilaria Vitali

Nineteenth-Century Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic

The Naked Consumer Today Jan Callebaut, Hendrik Hendrickx, Madeleine Janssens, 2002 Modern market research has made significant progress in pushing the envelope of analytical models of consumer behavior but common and highly visible marketing failures indicate that something is missing in this approach Long term success in marketing requires an actionable understanding of consumer motivations This book details Censydiam s The Center for Systematic Diagnostics in Marketing insights into these matters ranging from the importance of the unconscious in consumer decision making to the effective use of a universally applicable psychological model that can yield country specific results It is true that we live in a very quantitative age Academics are more inclined to bemoan the lack of numerical literacy among our citizens than to advocate a better understanding of human nature In terms of market research this means that many studies leap to quantification too quickly People s motivations are not so easily put into an analytical black box Quantification is ultimately necessary but it is critical to understand the correct questions to ask before we attempt to become precise about consumers buying dynamics

Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo, 1997 In Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo takes the critical engagement of anthropology to its limit by presenting the relationship between observer and observed as one of interacting equals and mutually constituting subjects Narrating debating and imagining real characters take center stage and through their act of speech invent a people rather than stand for it Exploring what it means to be a subject in the historical and poetic imagination of a Moroccan society Impasse of the Angels listens to dissonant and often idiosyncratic voices elaborate the fractures wounds and contradictions of the Maghribi postcolonial present Passionate and lyric ironic and tragic it is a transformative narrative experiment traveling the boundary of ethnography and fiction The Qur'an and the Aesthetics of Premodern Arabic Prose Sarah R. bin

Tyeer, 2016-09-10 This book approaches the Qur'an as a primary source for delineating the definition of ugliness and by extension beauty and in turn establishing meaningful tools and terms for literary criticism within the discipline of classical Arabic literature adab Focusing on the aesthetic dimension of the Qur'an this methodology opens up new horizons for reading adab by reading the tradition from within the tradition and thereby examining issues of decontextualisation and the untranslatable This approach in turn invites Comparatists as well as Arabists to consider other means and perspectives for approaching adab besides the Bakhtinian carnival Applying this critical strategy to literary works as diverse as One Thousand and One Nights and The Epistle of Forgiveness Sarah R bin Tyeer aims to prove two major points how Bakhtin's aesthetics is anachronistic and therefore theoretically inappropriate when applied to certain literary works and how ultimately this literary methodology is sometimes used as a proxy for ungrounded and sometimes unfair arguments by other scholars

Foreword by Angelika Neuwirth Professor of Quranic studies Freie University Berlin Germany On Freud's Femininity Graciela Abelin-Sas Rose, Leticia Glocer Fiorini, 2018-03-29 In this book a group of contemporary psychoanalytic authors dedicated to studies on women and the feminine have been assembled with the objective of displaying points of concordance and discordance in relation to Freudian proposals Discourse on women has changed greatly since Freud's time It coincides with deep changes experienced by women and the feminine position at least in most of the Western world It is common knowledge that contraceptives assisted fertilization advances in women's rights growingly evident sublimational capacities and demonstrations of professional success have definitely changed ideas regarding an eternal and immutable feminine nature The authors are interested in illuminating ways in which these changes have or have not influenced psychoanalytic debate in relation to the feminine This implies renewing the question of what is authentically feminine and whether there is any essential truth concerning the feminine Rumpelstiltskin's Secret Harry Rand, 2019-12-09 Everyone knows

Rumpelstiltskin's story or thinks they do But this innocent seeming tale hides generations of women's shrewd accounts of their relationships with men And the verdict is not flattering The fairytale may count among the world's oldest dirty jokes The theme of the tale an observation repeated and varied throughout mocks male inadequacy in many forms beginning with sexual failure The punchline misplaced over time its wickedly funny insights about adult life passed for childish nonsense The story hides in plain sight criticism of workplace sexual harassment centuries before society took notice of the indignity Rumpelstiltskin tells a feminist tale with lessons for men and women about what women said to each other when they thought their private conversation and complaints passed unnoticed In the story s different versions the Brothers Grimm who recorded the tale missed women s wry observations The Transgender Studies Reader Susan Stryker, Stephen Whittle, 2013-10-18 Transgender studies is the latest area of academic inquiry to grow out of the exciting nexus of queer theory feminist studies and the history of sexuality Because transpeople challenge our most fundamental assumptions about the relationship between bodies desire and identity the field is both fascinating and contentious The Transgender Studies Reader puts between two covers fifty influential texts with new introductions by the editors that taken together document the evolution of transgender studies in the English speaking world By bringing together the voices and experience of transgender individuals doctors psychologists and academically based theorists this volume will be a foundational text for the transgender community transgender studies and related queer theory
