Universal Horrors Tom Weaver, Michael Brunas, John Brunas, 2011-12-20. Revised and updated since its first publication in 1990, this acclaimed critical survey covers the classic chillers produced by Universal Studios during the golden age of Hollywood horror, 1931 through 1946. Trekking boldly through haunts and horrors from The Frankenstein Monster, The Wolf Man, Count Dracula, and The Invisible Man to The Mummy, Paula the Ape Woman, The Creeper, and The Inner Sanctum, the authors offer a definitive study of the 86 films produced during this era and present a general overview of the period. Coverage of the films includes complete cast lists, credits, storyline, behind-the-scenes information, production history, critical analysis, and commentary from the cast and crew, much of it drawn from interviews by Tom Weaver, whom USA Today calls the king of the monster hunters. Unique to this edition are a new selection of photographs and poster reproductions and an appendix listing additional films of interest.

Contemporary Black American Cinema Mia Mask, 2012. Contemporary Black American Cinema offers a fresh collection of essays on African American film media and visual culture in the era of global multiculturalism. Integrating theory, history, and criticism, the contributing authors deftly connect interdisciplinary perspectives from American studies, cinema studies, cultural studies, political science, media studies, and Queer theory. This multidisciplinary methodology expands the discursive and interpretive registers of film analysis. From Paul Robeson's and Sidney Poitier's star vehicles to Lee Daniels's directorial forays, these essays address the career legacies of film stars, examine various iterations of Blaxploitation and animation, question the comedic politics of fat suit films, and celebrate the innovation of avant-garde and experimental cinema.

Stealing the Show Miriam J. Petty, 2016-03-08. Stealing the Show is a study of African American actors in Hollywood during the 1930s, a decade that saw the consolidation of stardom as a potent cultural and industrial force. Petty focuses on five performers whose Hollywood film careers flourished during this period: Louise Beavers, Fredi Washington, Lincoln Stepin Fetchit, Perry Bill, Bojangles Robinson, and Hattie McDaniel, to reveal the problematic stardom and the enduring interdependent patterns of performance and spectatorship for performers and audiences of color. She maps how these actors, though regularly cast in stereotyped and marginalized roles, employed various strategies of cinematic and extracinematic performance to negotiate their complex positions in Hollywood and to ultimately steal the show. Drawing on a variety of source materials, Petty explores these stars' reception among Black audiences and theorizes African American viewership in the early twentieth century. Her book is an important and welcome contribution to the literature on the movies.

Manhattan's Vibrant Lost Community: Tales from the Forgotten Neighborhood Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-06. Journey back in time to the vibrant and bustling Financial District's Lost Neighborhood, a melting pot of cultures and a testament to the indomitable spirit of community This lost neighborhood nestled at the southern tip of Manhattan was home to a diverse tapestry of immigrants from all corners of the world including Slovaks Irish Greeks Lebanese and Syrians In this captivating book we delve into the rich history and legacy of this forgotten neighborhood from its humble beginnings in the early 1900s to its eventual demise in the 1970s Through the eyes of its former residents we witness the daily rhythms of life in the tenement buildings the challenges and rewards of working in the financial district and the vibrant social and cultural life that filled the streets We explore the iconic landmarks that defined the neighborhood including Trinity Church a beacon of faith that welcomed people from all walks of life and St Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church a symbol of resilience that survived a devastating fire We also uncover the hidden stories of the people who made this neighborhood their home from the unsung heroes who kept the financial district running to the families who raised their children in the midst of the city's hustle and bustle But as the decades passed the neighborhood faced increasing pressure from modernization and urban renewal The construction of the World Trade Center in the 1960s and 1970s marked the beginning of the end for this vibrant community The neighborhood was razed to make way for the towering skyscrapers that now dominate the area and the residents were forced to disperse to other parts of the city Today only memories remain of the Financial District's Lost Neighborhood But its legacy lives on in the stories of its former residents in the historical landmarks that still stand and in the hearts of those who cherish the memory of a time when community and diversity thrived in the heart of Manhattan This book is a tribute to the lost neighborhood and its enduring spirit Through a combination of historical research personal anecdotes and evocative imagery we bring this forgotten community back to life offering a glimpse into a world that has vanished but will never be forgotten If you like this book write a review Louis Auchincloss Vincent Piket,1991-06-10
