A Political Space Warren Magnusson, Karen Shaw, 2002 Politics of Forests Jakob Donner-Amnell, 2017-03-02 Bringing together case studies from Canada the Nordic countries and Russia this book is the first to provide a comparative examination of the current transformations in the forest industry regimes and the challenges they make for the communities dependent on this industry Questioning how globalization has influenced forest regimes the book focuses on individual forest companies and argues that they are the main motors of the industry's internationalization often without taking due consideration of the complex interrelations between society the environment and forest trade During the current phase of globalization the sphere of material production within the forest industry has increasingly been modified by more speculative signals from the market Both the growing role of investor interests as well as the broader societal demands for greening the production chain have forced managers to be more sensitive to the performance profile and image of their companies In conclusion the book highlights instances of processes working towards homogenization and diversity and suggests that while Anglo American management practice is increasingly important across the northern forest regions it is also meeting with resistance due to historical and political conditions

Protest and Politics Howard Ramos, Kathleen Rodgers, 2015-06-01 The Tea Party The Occupy Movement Idle No More Around the world social movements have taken to new media and the streets to challenge the status quo At the same time most democracies have witnessed a sharp decline in voter turnout Protest and Politics examines this seemingly contradictory shift in political participation as well as the blurring of social movement and mainstream politics through the lens of the social movement society SMS thesis Drawing on the long history of social movements in Canada in comparison to the US and the transnational sphere the contributors revisit the SMS thesis to determine whether it still applies to see what insights can be gleaned from Canadian social movements and to clarify the relationships between movements and mainstream politics They argue that the SMS thesis must be recalibrated to reflect changes in political participation to embrace broader political and historical contexts and to consider the emergence of social movement societies plural over a single polity within and across countries
