Debts of Honor Mór Jókai, At that time I was but ten years old my brother Lorand sixteen our dear mother was still young and father I well remember no more than thirty six Our grandmother on my father s side was also of our party and at that time was some sixty years of age she had lovely thick hair of the pure whiteness of snow In my childhood I had often thought how dearly the angels must love those who keep their hair so beautiful and white and used to have the childish belief that one s hair grows white from abundance of joy It is true we never had any sorrow it seemed as if our whole family had contracted some secret bond of unity whereby each member thereof bound himself to cause as much joy and as little sorrow as possible to the others Poems Mrs. F.
