The events and processes that have taken place in the last decade in South America have given way to one of the most interesting regional phenomena under a global crisis and within a changing world order From the traditional status of Washington's backyard and reign of economic and political stability South America has increasingly turned into a region marked by a heterodox development in the light of other dominant regional tendencies of development the European Union NAFTA and the Asia Pacific The political economic nature of the new South American regionalism NSAR is far from echoing the dominant interpretations about it which reflects the major regional projects today Given the reach and scope of the existing literature on the topic of the NSAR there is an important gap concerning its academic exploration in relation to its nature of development political economic complexity challenges and orientations In this sense this book explores from a wider and pluralist political economic perspective the developmental dimensions of the NSAR within a changing hemispheric and world order in transformation It analyses a set of specific debates regionalism in the Americas then and now social and economic development and regional integration and organized crime intelligence and defence An in depth and critical reflection on the complex and heterogeneous path of regionalization taking place in South America from different perspectives and in key issues of regional development The Monroe Doctrine and Hispanic America Samuel Guy Inman, 1921 Journal of the United States Artillery ,1930 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1924 The New Larned History ,1924
