Six Masters Of Early Qing And Wu Li:

Chinese Art and Dynastic Time Wu Hung, 2022-05-03 A sweeping look at Chinese art across the millennia that upends traditional perspectives and offers new pathways for art history Throughout Chinese history dynastic time the organization of history through the lens of successive dynasties has been the dominant mode of narrating the story of Chinese art even though there has been little examination of this concept in discourse and practice until now Chinese Art and Dynastic Time uncovers how the development of Chinese art was described in its original cultural sociopolitical and artistic contexts and how these narratives were interwoven with contemporaneous artistic creation In doing so leading art historian Wu Hung opens up new pathways for the consideration of not only Chinese art but also the whole of art history Wu Hung brings together ten case studies ranging from the third millennium BCE to the early twentieth century CE and spanning ritual and religious art painting sculpture the built environment and popular art in order to examine the deep rooted patterns in the historical conceptualization of Chinese art Elucidating the changing notions of dynastic time in various contexts he also challenges the preoccupation with this concept as the default mode in art historical writing This critical investigation of dynastic time thus constitutes an essential foundation to pursue new narrative and interpretative frameworks in thinking about art history Remarkable for the sweep and scope of its arguments and lucid style Chinese Art and Dynastic Time probes the roots of the collective imagination in Chinese art and frees us from long held perspectives on how this art should be understood Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC
