Mimbres Far from the Heartland Mary E. Whisenhunt, Patricia A. Gilman, 2025 This volume explores the formation of social identity and cultural affiliation at the Powers Ranch site a small settlement at the western edge of the Mimbres region The authors conclude that the people at Powers Ranch were quintessentially Mimbres and were more closely affiliated with Mimbres settlements on the Gila River drainage in southeast Arizona and New Mexico than with those living in the Mimbres Valley core area

Butrint 5: Life and Death at a Mediterranean Port William Bowden, 2020-02-19 This is the second volume arising from the 1994-2003 excavations of the Triconch Palace at Butrint Albania which charted the history of a major Mediterranean waterfront site from the 2nd to the 15th centuries AD The sequence Butrint 3 Excavations at the Triconch Palace Oxbow 2011 included the development of a palatial late Roman house followed by intensive activity between the 5th and 7th centuries involving domestic occupation metal working fishing and burial The site saw renewed activity from the 10th century coinciding with the revival of the town of Butrint and for the following 300 years continued in intermittent use associated with its channel side location This volume reports on the finds from the site excluding the pottery which demonstrate the ways in which the lives diet and material culture of a Mediterranean population changed across the arc of the late Roman and Medieval periods It includes discussion of the environmental evidence the human and faunal remains metal working evidence and the major assemblages of glass coins and small finds giving an insight into the health subsistence base and material culture of the population of a Mediterranean site across more than 1000 years The findings raise important questions regarding the ways in which changes in the circumstances of the town affected the population between Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages They illustrate in particular how an urban Roman center became more rural during the 6th century with a population that faced major challenges in their health and living conditions
