Gay and Lesbian Literature Since

World War II Sonya L Jones, 2014-05-22 Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II chronicles the multifaceted explosion of gay and lesbian writing that has taken place in the second half of the twentieth century. Encompassing a wide range of subject matter and a balance of gay and lesbian concerns, it includes work by established scholars as well as young theoreticians and archivists who have initiated new areas of investigation. The contributors' examinations of this rich literary period make it easy to view the half century from 1948 to 1998 as the Queer Renaissance. Included in Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II are critical and social analyses of literary movements, novels, short fiction, periodicals, and poetry, as well as a look at the challenges of establishing a repository for lesbian cultural history. Specific chapters in this groundbreaking work trace the development of gay poetry in America after World War II, examine how AIDS is represented in the first four Latino novels to deal with the subject matter, and chronicle the birth of lesbian feminist publishing in the 1970s, showing how it created a flourishing gay literature in the 1980s and 1990s. Other chapters outline the history of The Ladder from its initial publication in 1956 as the official vehicle of the Daughters of Bilitis to its final issue as a privately published literary magazine in 1972; examine Baldwin's 1962 novel Another Country and discuss the complicated critical history of this work and its relation to Baldwin's literary reputation; racial, sexual, and political factors are taken into account; chart how Other Voices and Other Rooms by Truman Capote and The House of Breath by William Goyen reveal contradictory genderings of male homosexuality, suggesting an absence of a unified model of mid-twentieth-century male homosexuality; argue that the 1976 novel Lover by Bertha Harris can be considered an exemplary novel within discussions of both postmodern fiction and lesbian theory. The author calls for Harris to be added to the group of writers such as Wittig, Anzaldúa, Lorde, and Winterson who are discussed within the context of a postmodern lesbian narrative; examine the short fiction of Canadian lesbian novelist Jane Rule in an effort to shed light on lesbian creative practice in the homophobic climate of postwar North America; argue for an understanding of Dale Peck's novel Martin and John as an attempt to link two apparently different processes of import to contemporary male subjects through examination of the novel alongside selected passages from Nietzsche and Freud; focus on the pragmatic issues of developing and maintaining accessible research venues from which to cultivate the study of racial and cultural diversity in lesbian lives. Document the history of the Lesbian Herstory Archives, one of the first lesbian-specific collections in the world, from its birth in the early 1970s to the present.

Military History of Late Rome 425-457 Ilkka Syväne,2021-10-01
 A history of pivotal military and political events in Ancient Rome from 425 to 457 BC Military History of Late Rome 425 457 analyses in great detail how the Romans coped with the challenge posed by masses of Huns in a situation in which the Germanic tribes had gained a permanent foothold in the territories of West Rome This analysis reassesses the strategy and tactics of the period The book shows how cooperation between the West Roman Master of Soldiers Aetius and East Roman Emperor Marcian saved Western civilization from the barbarian nightmare posed by the Huns of Attila A fresh appraisal of the great clash at the Catalaunian Fields in 451 offers new insights into the mechanics of the fighting and shows that it was a true battle of nations which decided nothing less than the fate of human civilization Had Aetius and his allies lost the battle and had Marcian not cooperated with Aetius in 451 and 452 we would not have seen the rise of the West and the rise of the scientific thinking Praise for Military History of Late Rome 425 457 An outstanding work the series gives us a very good picture of the long process that has come to be known as the Fall of Rome This is an invaluable read for anyone with an interest in Late Antiquity The NYMAS Review

Traumatic Encounters Paul Eisenstein, 2012-02-01 Traumatic Encounters argues for an alternative memorial path in Holocaust and cultural studies one that shows the vital necessity of thinking in a universal way about an event like the Holocaust Relying on Hegel s notion that the particular is already universal Eisenstein shows how the encounter with trauma transpires not in the refusal of a universalizing gesture but rather in its wholesale embrace This embrace results in a recognition involving the trauma that conditions the possibility of history in the first place a structural trauma immune to historicization that Hegel and psychoanalysis place at the heart of subjectivity and community This encounter with structural trauma is at the center of four titles that Eisenstein examines Spielberg s Schindler s List D M Thomas s The White Hotel Thomas Mann s Doctor Faustus and David Grossman s See Under Love

The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Process of International Claims Resolution David D. Caron, Crook, 2021-10-01 Examining the Tribunal s structure operations and evolution in search of the underlying patterns that characterize such international institutions this valuable book records the diverse experiences and judgments of a group of outstanding lawyers each of whom has played a significant role at some stage of the Tribunal's proceedings. The essays are grouped in three distinct stages in the Tribunal's history. The first group deals with the creation of the Tribunal building upon the bare-boned framework laid down by the Claims Settlement Declaration. The second deals with the Tribunal at work processing and deciding cases during the period when it gave greatest emphasis to resolving large commercial claims. The third deals with the present situation where the Tribunal has taken a docket first dominated by claims of U.S. Iranian dual nationals against Iran and then by a small group of large and difficult claims between the two governments. Published under the auspices of the American Society of International Law. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint. New York Magazine, 1996-11-04. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. Heroism and the Changing Character of War S. Scheipers, 2014-04-01. Post heroism is often perceived as one of the main aspects of change in the character of war, a phenomenon prevalent in western societies. According to this view, demographic and cultural changes in the west have severely decreased the tolerance for casualties in war. This edited volume provides a critical examination of this idea.
