Story Hunger:

Readings in Philippine Literature, 1994 Hunger's Journey: A Story of Pain and Triumph Pasquale De Marco, In the depths of despair a young woman embarks on a harrowing journey through the labyrinth of anorexia bingeing and bulimia Hunger's Journey A Story of Pain and Triumph delves into the complexities of eating disorders shedding light on the relentless struggle against an insidious adversary that threatens to consume body mind and spirit With unflinching honesty the author bares her soul recounting the insidious onset of an eating disorder its subtle whispers morphing into deafening demands that dictate every aspect of her existence We follow her as she navigates the treacherous terrain of self denial the torturous cycle of bingeing and purging and the profound impact on her physical and mental health As the eating disorder tightens its grip we witness the erosion of self worth the isolation and withdrawal from loved ones and the relentless battle against a formidable foe We become privy to the inner turmoil the self loathing and the desperate attempts to quell the insatiable hunger that gnaws at her soul Yet amidst the darkness a flicker of hope emerges With unwavering determination the author embarks on a quest for recovery a path fraught with challenges setbacks and moments of despair We accompany her as she confronts the underlying issues that fueled the eating disorder unraveling the tangled threads of trauma insecurity and perfectionism that have held her captive With unwavering resolve the author takes courageous steps towards healing We witness the gradual mending of her relationship with food and her body the rediscovery of self love and self acceptance and the emergence of a newfound sense of purpose and meaning in life Hunger's Journey is an unflinching exploration of the devastating impact of eating disorders a poignant testament to the strength of the human spirit and an inspiring call to action for a world free from these insidious afflictions It is a story that will resonate with anyone who has been touched by the pain of an eating disorder offering hope understanding and a powerful reminder that recovery is possible If you like this book write a review Philippine Short Stories, 1925-1940 Leopoldo Y. Yabes, 1997 This anthology puts together some sixty six short stories in English written by Filipino authors within forty years following the introduction of English in the Philippines Originally published in periodicals now long out of circulation they have been given this more enduring form through the efforts of Leopoldo Y Yabes a well known literary critic scholar and educator Students of Philippine literature will find this anthology invaluable as a reference and will appreciate the discussion and information provided by the editor in his introductory essays The Art of Hunger Alys Moody, 2018-11-10 Hunger is one of the governing metaphors for literature in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Beginning in the mid nineteenth century writers and critics repeatedly describe writing as a process of starvation as in the familiar type of the starving artist and high art as the rejection of culinary pleasures The Art of Hunger Aesthetic Autonomy and the Afterlives of Modernism argues that this metaphor offers a way of describing the contradictions of aesthetic autonomy in modernist literature and its late twentieth century heirs This book traces the emergence of a tradition of writing it calls the art of hunger from the origins of modernism to the end of the twentieth century It focuses particularly on three authors who redeploy the modernist art of hunger as a response to key moments in the history of modernist aesthetic autonomy's delegitimization Samuel Beckett in post Vichy France Paul Auster in post 1968 Paris and New York and J M Coetzee in late apartheid South Africa Combining historical analysis of these literary fields with close readings of individual texts and drawing extensively on new archival research this book offers a counter history of modernism's post World War II reception and a new theory of aesthetic autonomy as a practice of unfreedom and Meaning in John 6 Susan Hylen, 2005 Many interpreters read John 6 as a contrast between Jesus and Judaism Jesus repudiates Moses and manna and offers himself as an alternative In contrast this monograph argues that John 6 places elements of the Exodus story in a positive and constructive relationship to Jesus This reading leads to an understanding of John as an interpreter of Exodus who like other contemporary Jewish interpreters sees current experiences in light of the Exodus story This approach to John offers new possibilities for assessing the gospel's relationship to Jewish scripture its dualism and its metaphorical language Imaginations of Death and the Beyond in India and Europe Günter

Blamberger, Sudhir Kakar, 2018-03-27 This volume explores current images of afterlife afterdeath and the presence of the dead in the imaginations of the living in Indian and European traditions Specifically it focuses on the deepest and most fundamental uncertainty of human existence the awareness of human mortality on which depends any assignment of meaning to earthly existence as also to notions of worldly and otherworldly salvation This central idea is addressed in the literature arts audiovisual media and other cultural artefacts of the two traditions The chapters are based on two main assumptions First that one cannot report on the direct experience of death so it is only possible to speak allegorically of it Second in contemporary Western societies marked by structural atheism people look at literature the arts and mass media to study their depiction and reading of traditionally religious questions of disease death and the Beyond This is in contrast to Asian civilizations whose preoccupation with death and Beyond is persistent and perhaps central to the civilizations highest thought The chapters cover a wide spectrum of disciplinary approaches from psychoanalysis to religious anthropological literary and film studies from sociology and philosophy to art history and address issues of unsettling power comforting illusions of afterlife the relations between afterlife and fertility visions of technological immortalization of mankind the problem of thinking about death after the death of God socialist utopias of bodily immortality fear of Hell and punishment different concepts in relating the living and the dead near death experiences and cultural practices of spiritualism occultism and suicide
