Story Line Exploring The Literature Of The Appalachian Trail:

Story Line Ian Marshall,1998 Weaving together stories of his hiking adventures with reflective explorations of literary works set along the Appalachian Trail Marshall traces a literary geography of the trail that ranges from Georgia to Maine and spans three centuries      Appalachian Trail Names David Lillard,2002 This concise alphabetical backpack friendly guide explains the origins of some 1100 place names hikers come across as they make their way along the Appalachian Trail Filled with fascinating facts surprising stories and colourful trivia it also offers insight into the AT s long and legendary history as well as the history of the wilderness preservation movement and of the country itself      The Oxford Handbook of

Cognitive Literary Studies Lisa Zunshine,2015 The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Literary Studies applies developments in cognitive science to a wide range of literary texts that span multiple historical periods and numerous national literary traditions      Peak Experiences Ian Marshall,2003 In Peak Experiences Marshall sets out on a far more personal and far reaching journey to discover how our modern estrangement from the natural world has affected our mental well being

From the Fallen Tree Thomas Hallock,2004-07-21 Anglo American writers in the revolutionary era used pastoral images to place themselves as native to the continent argues Thomas Hallock in From the Fallen Tree Beginning in the mid eighteenth century as territorial expansion got under way in earnest and ending with the era of Indian dispossession the author demonstrates how authors explored the idea of wilderness and political identities in fully populated frontiers Hallock provides an alternative to the myth of a vacant wilderness found in later writings Emphasizing shared cultures and conflict in the border regions he reconstructs the milieu of Hector St John de Crevecoeur Thomas Jefferson Meriwether Lewis and William Clark William Bartram and James Fenimore Cooper as well as lesser known figures such as Lewis Evans Jane Colden Anne Grant and Elias Boudinot State papers treaty documents maps and journals provide a rich backdrop against which Hallock reinterprets the origins of a pastoral tradition Combining the new western history ecological criticism and native American studies Hallock uncovers the human stories embedded in descriptions of the land His historicized readings offer an alternative to long accepted myths about the vanishing backcountry the march of civilization and a pristine wilderness The American pastoral he argues grew from the anxiety of independent citizens who became colonizers themselves      Narrative Concerns Todd Davis,Kenneth Womack,2025-08-20 Bridging existing gaps between postmodern theory fiction and ethics Narrative Concerns Ethical Criticism in Literature Music and Film offers an innovative critical analysis of the ways in which fictional narratives impact our lives as well as of the evolving nature of our understanding of the ethical possibilities inherent in postmodern humanism The wide array of writers directors and musicians examined in Narrative Concerns include Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino Jean Rhys John Irving Norman Maclean Anthony Burgess Kurt Vonnegut James Cameron Beyonc and Mary Oliver These creators frequently explore our postmodern preoccupation with the void in new and often innovative ways from their challenging perceptions of the family humor and narrative design to their examinations of the past the power of history and the redemptive nature of humanity Davis and Womack read their works to demonstrate a fascinating assortment of literary characters in the act of generating new conceptions of selfhood underscore how a given text's construction affects our understanding of the ethically motivated acts of authorship and storytelling and address the powerful bonds of human community By challenging the very nature in which we conduct literary and theoretical studies ethical criticism thus offers useful forays into a wide range of disciplines from feminism and gender studies to cultural criticism and the dynamics of race and ethnicity

Reclaiming Nostalgia Jennifer K. Ladino, 2012-12-24 Often thought of as the quintessential home or the Eden from which humanity has fallen the natural world has long been a popular object of nostalgic narratives In Reclaiming Nostalgia Jennifer Ladino assesses the ideological effects of this phenomenon by tracing its dominant forms in American literature and culture since the closing of the frontier in 1890 While referencing nostalgia for pastoral communities and for untamed and often violent frontiers she also highlights the ways in which nostalgia for nature has served as a mechanism for social change a model for ethical relationships and a motivating force for social and environmental justice

Topographies of the Sacred Catherine E. Rigby, 2004 Although the British romantic poets notably Blake Wordsworth and Byron have been the subjects of previous ecocritical examinations this text compares English and German literary models of romanticism

American Environmental Fiction, 1782-1847 Matthew Wynn Sivils, 2016-04-15 While Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau are often credited with inventing American environmental writing Matthew Wynn Sivils argues that the works of these Transcendentalists must be placed within a larger literary tradition that has its origins in early Republic natural histories Indian captivity narratives Gothic novels and juvenile literature Authors such as William Bartram Ann Eliza Bleecker and Samuel Griswold Goodrich to name just a few enabled the development of a credibly American brand of proto environmental fiction Sivils argues that these seeds of environmental literature would come to fruition in James Fenimore Cooper's The Pioneers which he argues is the first uniquely environmental American novel He then connects the biogeographical politics of Cooper's The Prairie with European anti-Americanism and concludes this study by examining how James Kirke Paulding Thomas Cole and James Fenimore Cooper imaginatively addressed the problem of human culpability and nationalistic cohesiveness in the face of natural disasters With their focus on the character and implications of the imagined American landscape these key works of early environmental thought contributed to the growing influence of the natural environment on the identity of the fledgling nation decades before the influences of Emerson's Nature and Thoreau's Walden

Slow Travel and Tourism Janet E. Dickinson, Les Lumsdon, 2010 First Published in 2010 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Natures in Translation Alan Bewell, 2017-01-02 Understanding the dynamics of British colonialism and the enormous ecological transformations that took place through the mobilization and globalized management of natures For many critics Romanticism is synonymous with nature writing for representations of the natural world appear during this period with a freshness concreteness depth and intensity that have rarely been equaled Why did nature matter so much to writers of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries And how did it play such an important role in their understanding of themselves and the world In Natures in Translation Alan Bewell argues that there is no Nature in the singular only natures that have undergone transformation through time and across space He examines how writers as disparate as Erasmus and Charles Darwin Joseph Banks Gilbert White William Bartram William Wordsworth John Clare and Mary Shelley understood a world in which natures were traveling and resettling the globe like never before Bewell presents British natural history as a translational activity aimed at globalizing local natures by making them mobile exchangeable comparable and representable Bewell explores how colonial writers in the period leading up to the formulation of evolutionary theory responded to a world in which new natures were coming into being while others disappeared For some of these writers colonial natural history held the promise of ushering in a cosmopolitan nature in which every species through trade and exchange might become a true citizen of the world Others struggled with the question of how to live after the natures they depended upon were gone Ultimately Natures in Translation demonstrates that far from being separate from the dominant concerns of British imperial culture nature was integrally bound up with the business of empire

The ISLE Reader Michael P. Branch, Scott Slovic, 2003 This volume gathers nineteen of the most representative and defining essays from the journal ISLE Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and Environment over the course of its first ten years Following an introduction that traces the stages of ecocriticism's development The ISLE Reader is organized into three sections each of which reflects one of the general goals the journal has sought to accomplish The section titled Re evaluations provides new readings of familiar environmental writers and new environmental perspectives on authors or literary traditions not usually considered from a green perspective The writings in Reaching Out to Other Disciplines promote cross pollination among various disciplines and methodologies in the environmental arts and humanities The writings in the final section New Theoretical and Practical Paradigms are especially significant for the conceptual and methodological terrain they map The ISLE Reader documents the state of research in ecocriticism and related interdisciplinary fields provides a survey of the field and points to new methodologies and possibilities for the future

Horace Kephart Mae Miller Claxton, George Frizzell, 2024-01-12 Best known for Our Southern Highlanders 1913 and Camping and Woodcraft 1916 Horace Kephart's keen interest in exploring and documenting the great outdoors would lead him not only to settle in Bryson City North Carolina but also to become the most significant writer about the Great Smoky Mountains in the early twentieth century Edited by Mae Miller Claxton and George Frizzell Horace Kephart Writings extends past Kephart's two well read works of the early 1900s and dives into his correspondence with friends across the globe articles and columns in national magazines unpublished manuscripts journal entries and fiction in order to shed some deserved light on Kephart's classic image as a storyteller and practical guide to the Smokies The book is divided into thematic subsections that call attention to the variety in Kephart's writings its nine chapters featuring Kephart

s works on camping and woodcraft guns southern Appalachian culture fiction the Cherokee scouting and the park and Appalachian trail Each chapter is accompanied by an introductory essay by a notable Appalachian scholar providing context and background to the included works Written for scholars interested in Appalachian culture and history followers of the modern outdoor movement students enamored of the Great Smoky Mountains and general readers alike Horace Kephart Writings gathers a plethora of little known and rarely seen material that illustrates the diversity and richness found in Kephart s work

Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf,2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena L.M.

Montgomery and the Matter of Nature(s) Rita Bode,Jean Mitchell,2018-04-30 L M Montgomery s writings are replete with enchanting yet subtle and fluid depictions of nature that convey her intense appreciation for the natural world At a time of ecological crises intensifying environmental anxiety and burgeoning eco critical perspectives L M Montgomery and the Matter of Nature s repositions the Canadian author s relationship to nature in terms of current environmental criticism across several disciplines introducing a fresh approach to her life and work Drawing on a wide range of Montgomery s novels as well as her journals this collection suggests that socio ecological relationships encompass ideas of reciprocity affiliation autonomy and the capacity for transformation in both the human and more than human worlds and that these ideas are integral to Montgomery s vision and her literary legacy Framed by the twin themes of materiality and interrelationships essays by scholars of literature law animal studies anthropology and ecology examine place embodiment and difference in Montgomery s works and embrace the multiplicities embedded in the concept of nature Through innovative critical approaches L M Montgomery and the Matter of Nature s opens up conversations about humans interactions with nature and the material environment
