Ali, 2022-11 The Women s Mosque of America analyzes how American Muslim women cultivate new forms of Islamic authority that contend with gender inequality anti Blackness and global Islamophobia by approaching the Qur an as a tool for social justice and community building providing insights on Islamic authority at the intersections of gender religious space and national belonging

A New History of Iowa Jeff Bremer, 2023-10-06 The state of Iowa is largely unappreciated and often misunderstood It has a small population and sits in the middle of a huge country It s thought of as an uninspiring place full of farms and fields of corn But Iowa represents America as surely as New York and California and Iowa s history is more dynamic complicated and influential than commonly imagined Jeff Bremer s A New History of Iowa offers the most comprehensive history of the Hawkeye State ever written surveying Iowa from the last ice age through the COVID 19 pandemic It tells a new and vibrant story examining the state s small town culture politics social and economic development and its many diverse inhabitants Bremer features well known individuals such as Sauk leader Black Hawk artist Grant Wood botanist George Washington Carver suffragist Carrie Chapman Catt and President Herbert Hoover But Bremer broadens the state s story by including new voices among them runaway enslaved men who joined Iowa s 60th Colored Regiment in the Civil War young female pearl button factory workers Latino railroad workers who migrated to the state in the early twentieth century and recent refugees from Southeast Asia and the Balkans This new story of Iowa provides a brisk readable narrative written for a broad audience from high school and college students to teachers and scholars to general readers It tells the story of ordinary and extraordinary people of all backgrounds and greatly improves our knowledge of a state whose history has been neglected A New History of Iowa is for everyone who wants to learn about Iowa s surprising complex and remarkable past

A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 1 Patrick D. Bowen, 2015-08-17 A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 1 White American Muslims before 1975 is the first in depth study of the thousands of white Americans who embraced Islam between 1800 and 1975 Drawing from little known archives interviews and rare books and periodicals Patrick D Bowen unravels the complex social and religious factors that led to the emergence of a wide variety of American Muslim and Sufi conversion movements While some of the more prominent Muslim and Sufi converts including Alexander

Webb Maryam Jameelah and Samuel Lewis have received attention in previous studies White American Muslims before 1975 is the first book to highlight previously unknown but important figures including Thomas M Johnson Louis Glick Nadirah Osman and T B Irving      Encyclopedia of Muslim-American History Edward E. Curtis,2010 A two volume encyclopedia set that examines the legacy impact and contributions of Muslim Americans to U S history      Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America: Native American creation stories Rosemary Skinner Keller,Rosemary Radford Ruether,Marie Cantlon,2006 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life      American Stories Michael Brissenden,2012-08 From the desolate coal mining hollers of West Virginia to Washington DC s ghettos and the Mormon communities of Utah this engrossing journalistic account travels the country with unprecedented scope to grapple with political issues and to tell the stories of the players the hopeful true believers the skeptics the winners and the losers Following the long and fractious political process that will either deliver Barack Obama a chance to be a truly transformative president or place him alongside one term leaders such as Jimmy Carter this chronicle also observes the Republican Party tear itself apart to find a fitting opponent for Obama It analyzes whether America s first black president will meet the enormous expectations of his voters and the rest of the world With wry humor and cutting insight this book explores an extraordinary moment in United States history and shares tales of people identity and culture      The ^AOxford Handbook of Religion and American Education Michael D. Waggoner,Nathan C. Walker,2018-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and American Education brings together preeminent scholars to craft a comprehensive survey and assessment of the study of religion and education in the United States      The Book of History: The United States. Canada. Newfoundland. The West Indies ,1915      America's Covert Warriors Shawn Engbrecht,2011 A cogent analysis of the failings and potential of private military contractors      After America Mark Steyn,2012-09-18 Argues that President Barack Obama is a dangerous radical who wants not only big government but the Europeanization of the United States and explains how citizens can roll back the liberal establishment and return to fundamental American values      We Too Sing America Deepa Iyer,2017-03-07 Powerful Iyer catalogues the toll that various forms of discrimination have taken and highlights the inspiring ways activists are fighting back She is an ideal chronicler of this experience The Washington Post The nationally renowned racial justice advocate s illumination of the ongoing persecution of a range of American minorities In the lead up to the recent presidential election Donald Trump called for a complete ban on Muslims entering the United States surveillance against mosques and a database for all Muslims living in the country tapping into anti immigrant anti Muslim hysteria to a degree little seen since the targeting of South Asian Arab Muslim and Sikh people in the wake of 9 11 In the American Book Award winning We Too Sing America nationally renowned activist Deepa Iyer shows that this is the latest in a series of recent racial flash points from the 2012 massacre at the Sikh gurdwara in Oak Creek Wisconsin to the violent opposition to the Islamic Center in Murfreesboro Tennessee and to the Park

51 Community Center in Lower Manhattan Iyer asks whether hate crimes should be considered domestic terrorism and explores the role of the state in perpetuating racism through detentions national registration programs police profiling and constant surveillance Reframing the discussion of race in America she reaches into the complexities of the many cultures that make up South Asia Publishers Weekly and provides ideas from the front lines of post 9 11 America     A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen,2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation     Old Islam in Detroit Sally Howell,2014-07-29 Across North America Islam is portrayed as a religion of immigrants converts and cultural outsiders Yet Muslims have been part of American society for much longer than most people realize This book documents the history of Islam in Detroit a city that is home to several of the nation s oldest most diverse Muslim communities In the early 1900s there were thousands of Muslims in Detroit Most came from Eastern Europe the Ottoman Empire and British India In 1921 they built the nation s first mosque in Highland Park By the 1930s new Islam oriented social movements were taking root among African Americans in Detroit By the 1950s Albanians Arabs African Americans and South Asians all had mosques and religious associations in the city and they were confident that Islam could be and had already become an American religion When immigration laws were liberalized in 1965 new immigrants and new African American converts rapidly became the majority of U S Muslims For them Detroit s old Muslims and their mosques seemed oddly Americanized even unorthodox Old Islam in Detroit explores the rise of Detroit s earliest Muslim communities It documents the culture wars and doctrinal debates that ensued as these populations confronted Muslim newcomers who did not understand their manner of worship or the American identities they had created Looking closely at this historical encounter Old Islam in Detroit provides a new interpretation of the possibilities and limits of Muslim incorporation in American life It shows how Islam has become American in the past and how the anxieties many new Muslim Americans and non Muslims feel about the place of Islam in American society today are not inevitable but are part of a dynamic process of political and religious change that is still unfolding     Immigrants in American History Elliott Robert Barkan,2013-01-17 This encyclopedia is a unique collection of entries covering the arrival adaptation and integration of immigrants into American culture from the 1500s to 2010 Few topics inspire such debate among American citizens as the issue of immigration in the United States Yet it is the steady influx of foreigners into America over 400 years that has shaped the social character of the United States and has favorably positioned this country for globalization Immigrants in American History Arrival Adaptation and Integration is a chronological study of the migration of various ethnic groups to the United States from 1500 to the present day This multivolume collection explores dozens of immigrant populations in America and delves into major topical issues affecting different groups across time periods For example the first author of the collection profiles African Americans as an example of the effects of involuntary migrations A cross disciplinary approach derived from the contributions of leading scholars in the fields of history sociology cultural development economics political science law and cultural adaptation introduces a comparative analysis of customs beliefs and character among groups and provides insight into the impact of newcomers on American society and culture Atlas of Islamic History Peter Sluglett, Andrew Currie, 2015-01-30 This Atlas provides the main outlines of Islamic history from the immediate pre Islamic period until the end of 1920 that is before most parts of the Muslim world became sovereign nation states Each map is accompanied by a text that contextualises explains and expands upon the map and are fully cross referenced All of the maps are in full colour 18 of them are double page spreads and 25 are single page layouts This is an atlas of Islamic not simply Arab or Middle Eastern history hence it covers the entire Muslim world including Spain North West and East Africa the Indian sub continent Central Asia and South East Asia The maps are not static in that they show transitions within the historical period to which they refer for instance the stages of the three contemporaneous Umayyad Fatimid and Abbasid caliphates on Map 10 or the progress of the Mongol invasions and the formation of the various separate Mongol khanates between 1200 and 1300 on Map 21 Using the most up to date cartographic and innovative design techniques the maps break new ground in illuminating the history of Islam Brought right up to date with the addition of a Postscript detailing The Islamic World since c 1900 a Chronology from 500 BCE to 2014 and additional endpaper maps illustrating The Spread of Islam through the Ages and The Islamic World in the 21st Century the Atlas of Islamic History is an essential reference work and an invaluable textbook for undergraduates studying Islamic history as well as those with an interest in Asian History Middle East History and World History more broadly Locating Maldivian Women's Mosques in Global Discourses Jacqueline H. Fewkes, 2019-03-19 In this ethnographic examination of women's mosques in the Maldives anthropologist Jacqueline H Fewkes probes how the existence of these separate buildings where women lead prayers for other women intersect with larger questions about gender space and global Muslim communities Bringing together ethnographic insight with historical accounts this volume develops an understanding of the particular religious and cultural trends in the Maldives that have given rise to these unique socio religious institutions As Fewkes considers women's spaces in the Maldives as a practice apart from contemporary global Islamic customs she interrogates the intersections between local national and transnational communities in the development of Islamic spaces linking together the role of nations in the formation of Muslim social spaces with transnational conceptualizations of Islamic gendered spaces Using the Maldivian women's mosque as a starting point this book addresses the roles of both the nation and the global Muslim ummah in locating gendered spaces within discourses about gender and Islam     Young Muslim America Muna Ali,2018-01-08 Young Muslim America is an ethnographic study explores the perspectives and identities of the American descendants of both immigrant Muslims and converts to Islam Muna Ali shows that whether their parents were new Muslims or new Americans the younger generations of Muslim Americans grow up bearing a dual heritage and are uniquely positioned to expand the meaning of both
