Encyclopedia of the British Short Story Andrew Maunday,2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth featuring some of the most popular writers and works A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon,R.C. Feddersen,James Kurtzleben,Maurice A. Lee,Susan Rochette-Crawley,2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader s Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory In Pursuit of Doris Lessing Claire Sprague,1990-06-14 The phenomenon of Doris Lessing s global reputation and readership is addressed for the first time in In Pursuit of Doris Lessing through a series of essays that also provide a provocative overview of Lessing s long career from The Grass Is Singing the first of a series of African and woman centered politically radical works to her latest galactic and politically conservative works Nine different Lessings emerge from these essays forcing us to question received propositions about the universality of literature and the stability of the text and uncovering and recovering in the process the pungent variable controversial Lessing who has been and remains as international and transcultural as she is African and English Doris Lessing Alice Ridout,Susan Watkins,2011-10-20 Despite winning the Nobel Prize for Literature Doris Lessing has received relatively little critical attention One of the reasons for this is that Lessing has spent much of her lifetime and her long published writing career crossing both national and ideological borders This essay collection reflects and explores the incredible variety of Lessing s border crossings and positions her writing in its various social and cultural contexts Lessing crosses literal national borders in her life and work but more controversial have been her crossings of genre borders into sci fi and space fiction and her crossing of ideological borders such as moving into and out of the Communist Party and from a colonial into a post colonial world This timely collection also considers a number of the most interesting recent critical and theoretical approaches to Lessing s writing including work on maternity and abjection in relation to The Fifth Child and The Grass is Singing eco criticism in Lessing s Ifraikan novels and postcolonial re writings of landscape in her African Stories

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present Britannica Educational Publishing,2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society

Stewart's Quotable African Women Julia Stewart,2012-10-02 African women have not only been witnesses to their times they have also been actors and key players and their role in the affairs of the continent continues to grow The women whose voices are heard in Quotable African Women come from all walks of life their thoughts and words cover many subjects and represent varying opinions But one thing is clear the voice of African women is growing stronger and louder This collection of quotations offers new perspectives and gives us a unique insight into the continent of the future Third

World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister,1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries African Stories Doris Lessing,2014-06-24 This is

Doris Lessing's Africa where she lived for twenty five years and where so much of her interest and concern still resides Here in these stories Lessing explores the complexities the agonies and joys and the textures of life in Africa English Literature from the 19th Century Through Today Britannica Educational Publishing,2010-04-01 As the British empire expanded ever outward English writers of the 19th and early 20th centuries such as Charles Dickens T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf turned their gaze inward to matters of ethical and moral import Modern writers continue to examine British identity by reformulating and reinventing literary movements and devices introduced by their predecessors Readers of this volume are invited to observe the progression of English literature and enjoy the stories behind some of the most seminal works in the world

reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition Postcolonial Theory in the Global Age Om Prakash Dwivedi, Martin Kich, 2013-08-29 The new essays in this collection examine newer forms of colonialism operating today in an increasingly globalized world Recognizing the complexities and culpability of postcolonial politics the contributors fill gaps that exist at theoretical levels of postcolonial studies By studying film literature history and architecture they arrive at new ideas about immigration gender cultural translation identity and the future The collection is driven by notions of ethics an increasingly influential force at the grassroots if not the international level addressing capitalism and its attendant drawbacks throughout the course of the book The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth With approximately 450 entries this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad James Joyce D H Lawrence Rudyard Kipling Oscar Wilde Katherine Mansfield Martin Amis and others Meaning in English Lesley Jeffries, 1998-05-20 This accessible and lively introduction to semantics and the multi faceted nature of language guides the student and non specialist through the major ways in which the English language makes meaning The author discusses the meaning of linguistic units at all levels of language from sound to discourse while studying also the role of theories and models themselves in helping us to understand human linguistic behaviour Through examples and exercises readers are encouraged to think through and evaluate complex ideas and theories for themselves The Span of Mainstream and Science Fiction Peter Brigg, 2015-09-16 From the 1960s when the advent of what many call the postmodern style made establishing genres more difficult to the present day writers have been incorporating science not only the commonly thought of science and technology but also the soft sciences such as psychology and sociology into what was previously considered mainstream fiction This book examines works by Thomas Pynchon Doris Lessing and others who incorporate science in fiction and exemplify the movement of mainstream fiction writers toward a new genre termed span It also examines works by some science fiction writers who are edging closer to the border of science fiction and slowly over into span This book maps the boundaries of the new span genre of fiction and thus helps define texts that fall outside the realms of mainstream and science fiction Diagrams are included and a bibliography and index Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s J. Russell Perkin, 2021-06-15 The 1970s in Britain saw a series of industrial disputes a referendum on membership in the European Economic Community conflict about issues of immigration and citizenship and emergent environmental and feminist movements It was also a decade of innovation in the novel and novelists often addressed the state of the nation directly in their works In Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s Russell Perkin looks at social novels by John Fowles and Margaret Drabble the Cold War thrillers of John le Carr Richard Adams's best selling fable Watership Down the popular campus novels of Malcolm Bradbury and David Lodge Doris Lessing's dystopian visions and V S Naipaul's explorations of post colonial displacement Many of these highly regarded works sold in large numbers and have enjoyed enduring success a testament to the power of the political novel to explain a nation to itself Perkin explores the connections between the novel and politics situating the works it discusses in the rich context of the history and culture of the decade from party politics to popular television shows Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s elucidates a period of literary history now fifty years in the past and offers a balanced perspective on the age revealing that these works not only represented the politics of the time but played a meaningful role in them Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Parekh, 1998-07-17

Postcolonial African writers have made an enormous contribution to world literature These writers frequently examine such issues as emerging identities in the postcolonial climate neo colonialism and new forms of oppression cultural and political hegemonies neo elitism language appropriation and economic instability During the last decade their works have elicited increasing critical attention This reference book overviews the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume focuses on how postcoloniality is reflected in the novels poetry prose and drama of major minor and emerging writers from diverse countries in Africa including representative North and South African writers as well as writers of the Indian diaspora born in Africa While authors in indigenous African languages continue to produce valuable works the volume principally considers Anglophone and Francophone authors along with two Lusophone writers The reference book begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing The volume then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of approximately 60 writers such as Chinua Achebe Ama Ata Aidoo Tsitsi Dangarembga Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Tabar Ben Jelloun Doris Lessing Peter Nazareth Gabriel Okara Femi Osofisan and Efua Theodora Sutherland Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author s writings an overview of the critical response to the author s works and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many valuable perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature
