From 4 May, 1915, to the Evacuation of the Gallipoli Peninsula Charles Edwin Woodrow Bean, 1944      Struggling for Self Reliance Bob Breen, 2008-10-01 Military force projection is the self reliant capacity to strike from mainland ports bases and airfields to protect Australia s sovereignty as well as more distant national interests Force projection is not just a flex of military muscle in times of emergency or the act of dispatching forces It is a cycle of force preparation command deployment protection employment sustainment rotation redeployment and reconstitution If the Australian Defence Force consistently gets this cycle wrong then there is something wrong with Australia s defence This monograph is a force projection audit of four Australian regional force projections in the late 1980s and the 1990s valid measures of competence It concludes that Australia is running out of luck and time The Rudd Government has commissioned a new Defence White paper This monograph is Exhibit A for change      The Story of Anzac: From 4 May, 1915, to the evacuation of the Gallipoli Peninsula (8th ed., 1939) Charles Edwin Woodrow Bean, 1924      The Story of Anzac from the Outbreak of War to the End of the First Phase of the Gallipoli Campaign, May 4, 1915 Charles Edwin Woodrow Bean, 1924      Anzac, The Unauthorised Biography Carolyn Holbrook, 2014-09-01 Raise a glass for an Anzac Run for an Anzac Camp under the stars for an Anzac Is there anything Australians won t do to keep the Anzac legend at the centre of our national story But standing firm on the other side of the Anzac enthusiasts is a chorus of critics claiming that the appetite for Anzac is militarising our history and indoctrinating our children So how are we to make sense of this struggle over how we remember the Great War Anzac the Unauthorised Biography cuts through the clamour to provide a much needed historical perspective on the battle over Anzac It traces how since 1915 Australia s memory of the Great War has declined and surged reflecting the varied and complex history of the Australian nation itself Most importantly it asks why so many Australians persist with the fiction that the nation was born on 25 April 1915      Gallipoli Diary Vol. I [Illustrated Edition] General Sir Ian Standish Monteith Hamilton GCB GCMG DSO TD, 2015-11-06 udes Gallipoli Campaign Map and Illustrations Pack 71 photos and 31 maps of the campaign spanning the entire period of hostilities The desperate losses and ultimate failure of the Gallipoli campaign are legendary even among the holocaust of the First World War The man ultimately held responsible for the failure was General Ian Hamilton the officer in charge of the operation criticism has been heaped on him since the last Allied soldier left the Turkish peninsula in 1915 His diaries however paint a different picture that of a General struggling with a task that was night on impossible to begin with Thrust in to a mad cap operation he was given the scantest of details But my knowledge of the Dardanelles was nil of the Turk nil of the strength of our own forces next to nil Although I have met K almost every day during the past six months and although he has twice hinted I might be sent to Salonika never once to the best of my recollection had he mentioned the word Dardanelles Short of men supplies and most all ammunition his failure was not from

A Concise History of New Zealand Philippa Mein Smith,2012-02-06 New Zealand was the last major landmass other than Antarctica to be settled by humans The story of this rugged and dynamic land is beautifully narrated from its origins in Gondwana some 80 million years ago to the twenty first century Philippa Mein Smith highlights the effects of the country s smallness and isolation from its late settlement by Polynesian voyagers and colonisation by Europeans and the exchanges that made these people Maori and Pakeha to the dramatic struggles over land and recent efforts to manage global forces A Concise History of New Zealand places New Zealand in its global and regional context It unravels key moments the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi the Anzac landing at Gallipoli the sinking of the Rainbow Warrior showing their role as nation building myths and connecting them with the less dramatic forces economic and social that have shaped contemporary New Zealand The Anzacs at Gallipoli Christopher Pugsley, John Lockyer, 2000 The day by day experiences of Australian soldiers at Gallipoli told in graphic black and white photographs and text which describes the campaign and includes extracts from soldiers letters and diaries boxed information about particular parts of the battlefield Turkish commanders weapons rations Simpson and his donkey and more William Holmes Geoffrey Travers, 2020-06-01 The road that first leads people from Kingsford Smith Airport in Sydney is named General Holmes Drive but nowadays few Australians know anything about General Holmes William Holmes could be remembered for his lifelong public service in developing Sydney's water supply and sewerage system but he should be remembered as one of the foremost Australian citizen soldiers of his time Holmes commanded Australia's first independent military expeditionary force in World War I and in New Guinea accepted the first German surrender for Australia At Gallipoli Pozi res Bullecourt and Messines Holmes earned a reputation for fearlessness in battle believing that at critical times and even during pauses in engagement reconnaissance should be conducted by the officers in command making the decisions He was known to all his soldiers and his leadership inspired their affection and loyalty Philosophical about the risks he took on the battlefield it was cruel irony indeed that Holmes was killed on the day he took extra safety precautions Holmes a contemporary of John Monash arguably achieved more in his early career than his peer and would certainly have been a contender for command of the Australian Corps in 1918 had he still been alive This is his story History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies The Story of ANZAC Charles Edwin Woodrow Bean, 1981 World War 1 Military operations by Australian military forces ANB PRECIS SIN 0430625 World War 1 Gallipoli campaign Army operations by Australian and New Zealand Army Corps ANB PRECIS SIN 0430633 First published Sydney Angus Robertson 1921
