American Architecture and Urbanism Vincent Scully, 2013-04-29 A classic book authored by the foremost architectural historian in America this fully illustrated history of American architecture and city planning is based on Vincent Scully's conviction that architecture and city planning are inseparably linked and must therefore be treated together. He defines architecture as a continuing dialogue between generations which creates an environment across time. This definitive survey extends beyond the cities themselves to the American scene as a whole which has inspired the reasonable, balanced, closed and ordered forms and above all the probity that he feels typifies American architecture. A Global History of Architecture Mark M. Jarzombek, Vikramaditya Prakash, 2011-10-04 Praise for the First Edition Because of its exceptionally wide perspective even architectural historians who do not teach general survey courses are likely to enjoy and appreciate it. Annali d'architettura Not only does A Global History of Architecture own the territory of world architecture it pulls off this audacious task with panache, intelligence and for the most part grace. Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Revised and updated the compelling history of the world's great architectural achievements. Organized along a global timeline A Global History of Architecture Second Edition has been updated and revised throughout to reflect current scholarship. Spanning from 3500 b.c.e. to the present this unique guide is written by an all-star team of architectural experts in their fields who emphasize the connections, contrasts and influences of architectural movements throughout history. The architectural history of the world comes to life through a unified framework for interpreting and understanding architecture supplemented by rich drawings from the renowned Frank Ching as well as brilliant photographs. This new Second Edition Delivers more coverage of non-Western areas particularly Africa, South Asia, South East Asia and Pre-Columbian America. Is completely re-designed with full color illustrations throughout. Incorporates additional drawings by Professor Ching including new maps with more information and color. Meets the requirements set by the National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB) for non-Western architecture in history education. Offers new connections to a companion Web site including Google Earth™ coordinates for ease of finding sites. Architecture and art enthusiasts will find A Global History of Architecture Second Edition perpetually at their fingertips. American Architects and Texts Juan Pablo Bonta, 1996 In this volume the author analyzes 400 architectural books and articles published over the past 150 years to reveal changing societal preferences in architecture and to measure the reputations of individual architects the text includes a ranked list of the 100 most famous architects. Architecture, Ambition and Americans Wayne Andrews, 1964
